The Ladder Of Lives:

Cosmic Code of Life C.A. Ninan, 2015-02-12 This book relates DNA and the genetic code to consciousness as the universal principle of life This is done through perception of seven pattern germs from DNA which are girdled into an archetypal model called the tree of life The symbols of the tree model are logically related to the self spirit soul psyche and body How this new approach helps to understand the phenomenon of life in its integrated wholeness and cosmic totality is explained in this book It heralds the dawn of a new science of life which translates the innate mysticism of religions into the language of science It provides novel keys to consciousness and creativity in relation to the transcendental horizon of the human being and the spiritual growth of humanity at large

Living in the House of God Margaret Malone, 2014-11-21 How should we live in this house of God We know that the way a building is shaped also helps in determining the way those within it live and relate We are indeed formed by what we form Qualities such as integrity hospitality humanity and beauty in a place will enable its dwellers to live lives in which such qualities are evident The way we understand who we are and how we live will be reflected in our places and vice versa Our places become bearers of meaning and memory From Chapter 1 In Living in the House of God Margaret Malone draws on her study of and research on the Rule of Saint Benedict to show the ways in which this ancient rule can illuminate modern life The broad gamut of topics this book examines from Benedictine life as sacrament to Augustine's influence on Benedict to obedience and the art of listening among others is itself a witness to the generous flexibility of the Rule as Benedict proposes a way of life that truly corresponds to the deepest needs of the whole of human nature The Philosophy of Church Life Richard Tudor, 1887
