The Language Of Balinese Shadow Theater:

The Language of Balinese Shadow Theater Mary Sabina Zurbuchen, 2014-07-14 Bali's shadow puppet theater like others in Southeast Asia is a complex tradition with many conventions that puzzle Western observers. Mary Zurbuchen demonstrates how the linguistic codes of this rich art form mediate between social groups, cultural influences, historical periods, and conceptual schemes. Originally published in 1987, The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print-on-demand technology to again make available previously out-of-print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press. These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions. The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905. The Shadow Theater of Bali

Mary Sabina Zurbuchen, 1981 Improvisation and Composition in Balinese Gendered Wayang Nicholas Gray, 2016-12-05 This book is an examination of the music of the Balinese gendered wayang, the quartet of metallophones, gender, that accompanies the Balinese shadow puppet play, wayang kulit. The book focuses on processes of musical variation, the main means of creating new music in this genre, and the implications of these processes for the social and historical study of Balinese music, musical aesthetics, concepts of creativity, and compositional methods. Dr. Nick Gray tackles a number of core ethnomusicological concerns in a new way, including the relationship between composition and improvisation, and also highlights issues specific to Balinese music, including the importance of flexibility in performance, an aspect that has been largely ignored by scholars. Gray thus breaks new ground both in the study of issues relating to improvisation and composition, and in Balinese music studies. Balinese Discourses on Music and Modernization

Brita Heimark, Renee, 2013-08-21 While many Western scholars have discussed the technical aspects of Balinese music or the traditional contexts for performance, little has been written in Western languages about Balinese discourses on their music. This dissertation seeks to understand the experience of music in Bali according to Balinese voices through an analysis of oral and written dialogues on music, mainly by musicians and dalangs, shadow play puppeteers from the village of Sukawati, scholars, teachers, administrators, and students from the Indonesian College of the Arts (STSI) in the City of Denpasar. The study examines the influence of modernization on the traditional arts and their role in society. A concentration on Balinese discourses enables individual performers and scholars to represent themselves to a greater extent than previously seen in ethnomusicological scholarship, making this study more of a critical discussion among equals than a Western interpretation of others. This approach permits a rare view into contemporary Balinese conceptions and practices of music. History of the Language Sciences / Geschichte der Sprachwissenschaften / Histoire des sciences du langage. 1. In this fascinating study the lives and mores of women in one of the least understood but most densely populated areas of the world are unveiled through the eyes of generations of court poets For more than a millennium the poets of the Indic courts of Java and Bali composed epic kakawin poems in which they recreated the court environment where they and their royal patrons lived Major themes in this poetry form include war love and marriage It is a rich source for the cultural and social history of Indonesia Still being produced in Bali today kakawin remain of interest and relevance to Balinese cultural and religious identities This book draws on the epic kakawin poetry tradition to examine the institutions of courtship and marriage in the Indic courts Its primary purpose is to explore the experiences of women belonging to the kakawin world although the texts by nature reveal more about the discourses concerning women sexuality and gender than of the historical experiences of individual women For over a thousand years these royal courts were major patrons of the arts The court sponsored epic works that have survived provide an ongoing literary testimony to the cultural and social concerns of court society from its ealiest recorded history until its demise at the end of the nineteenth century This study examines the idealized images of women and sexuality that have pervaded Javanese and Balinese culture and provides insights into a number of cultural practices such as sati or self immolation of widows Routledge Handbook of Asian Theatre Siyuan Liu, 2016-02-05 Routledge Handbook of Asian Theatre is an advanced level reference guide which surveys the rich and diverse traditions of classical and contemporary performing arts in Asia showcasing significant scholarship in recent years An international team of over 50 contributors provide authoritative overviews on a variety of topics across Asia including dance music puppetry make up and costume architecture colonialism modernity gender musicals and intercultural Shakespeare This volume is divided into four sections covering Representative Theatrical Traditions in Asia Cross Regional Aspects of Classical and Folk Theatres Modern and Contemporary Theatres in Asian Countries Modernity Gender Performance Intercultural and Musical Theatre in Asia Offering a cutting edge overview of Asian theatre and performance the Handbook is an invaluable resource for academics researchers and students studying this ever evolving field Music of Death and New Creation Michael B. and written traditions share a long interwoven history The contributors to Boundaries of the Text show the difficulty of maintaining sharp distinctions between oral and written patterns as the traditions they consider defy a unidirectional movement from oral to written The boundaries of epic traditions are in a state of flux contracting or expanding as South and Southeast Asian societies respond to increasing access to modern education print technology and electronic media
