By the author of 'Zenobia, queen of the East'. William Ware,1838 The Suffering Savior; Or, Meditations on the Last Days of Christ Friedrich Wilhelm Krummacher,1860 The Last Days of Everest Dean Allen,2010-08 Members of a Nepalese family are embroiled in a blood feud that is decades old The feud involves the legitimate property rights to land which members of the family have shared for over a century China to the east gets involved when she sends an emissary agent to mediate the dispute over the land in question The emissary is not forthright when he portrays the ownership of the land to be that of one of the two individuals involved in the dispute He has lied to the man The emissary had reasons of his own for the dispute to devolve into a bloody battle A massacre results with the deaths of all but the youngest son of one of the men involved in the dispute Years pass and China has found out that the Himalayan Plateau has an immense pocket of geothermal energy deep below the surface She desperately needs to gain access and control of this energy source for her to become a major world power in the next century China sees this one particular family s blood feud as an opportunity to tap this energy source with whatever means necessary and focus the blame on someone else China s plot is successful but it doesn t go exactly as planned
