The Spivak Reader Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 1996 First Published in 1996 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Spivak Reader: Selected Works of Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak Gayatri Chakravorty Spivak, 1996

The Post-colonial Studies Reader Bill Ashcroft, Gareth Griffiths, Helen Tiffin, 2006 Boasting new extracts from major works in the field as well as an impressive list of contributors this second edition of a bestselling Reader is an invaluable introduction to the most seminal texts in post colonial theory and criticism Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Gloria J. Leckie, Lisa M. Given, John E. Buschman, 2010-07-26 This text provides an overview of major critical theorists from across disciplines including the humanities social sciences and education that discusses the importance of these critical perspectives for the advancement of LIS research and scholarship The practical application of library and information science is based upon 75 years of critical theory and thought Therefore it is essential for students and faculty in LIS to be familiar with the work of a wide range of critical theorists The aim of Critical Theory for Library and Information Science Exploring the Social from Across the Disciplines is to provide a comprehensive introduction to the critical theorists important to the LIS audience and to give insights into how such theory can be incorporated into actual LIS research and practice This book consists of chapters on individual critical theorists ranging from Aglietta to Habermas to Spivak written by an international group of library and information science scholars Each chapter provides an overview of the theoretical stance and contributions of the theorist as well as relevant critical commentary This book will be particularly valuable as a reference text of core readings for those pursuing doctoral or masters level degrees in LIS

The Postcolonial Intellectual Oliver Lovesey, 2016-03-03 Addressing a neglected dimension in postcolonial scholarship Oliver Lovesey examines the figure of the postcolonial intellectual as repeatedly evoked by the fabled troika of Said Spivak and Bhabha and by members of the pan African diaspora such as Cabral Fanon and James Lovesey's primary focus is Ng g wa Thiong o one of the greatest writers of post independence Africa Ng g continues to be a vibrant cultural agitator and innovator who in contrast to many other public intellectuals has participated directly in grassroots cultural renewal enduring imprisonment and exile as a consequence of his engagement in political action Lovesey's comprehensive study concentrates on Ng g's non fictional prose writings including his largely overlooked early journalism and his most recent autobiographical and theoretical work He offers a postcolonial critique that acknowledges Ng g's complex position as a virtual spokesperson for the oppressed and global conscience who now speaks from a location of privilege Ng g's writings Lovesey shows display a seemingly paradoxical consistency in their concerns over nearly five decades at the same time that there have been enormous transformations in his ideology and a shift in his focus from Africa's holocaust to Africa's renaissance Lovesey argues that Ng g's view of the intellectual has shifted from an alienated nearly neocolonial stance to a position that allows him to celebrate intellectual activism and a return to the model of the oral vernacular intellectual even as he challenges other global intellectuals Tracing the development of this notion of the postcolonial intellectual Lovesey argues for Ng g s rightful position as a major postcolonial theorist who helped establish postcolonial studies

Resistance and Identity in Twenty-First Century Literature and Culture Navleen Multani, 2023-10-12 Resistance and Identity in Twenty First Century Literature and Culture Voices of the Marginalized is a compendium of reflections on literary texts politics of literature and culture The book proffers ruminations on the pivotal role of constructive and positive resistance to reconstruct identities for meaningful human existence The disciplinary power and dominance coerce the natural body to resist and yearn for freedom One can establish unique identity by refusing to conform to pressures of society that deform the natural body Dominant forces and oppressive structures evoke resistance that can range from polite demurrals to refusal Resistance comes from the will that refuses to be controlled and governed The refusal of the ordinary illuminates ordinary lives bodies Language and literary texts contain essential truths of such human existence Words and imaginary worlds in literary works reveal truth and suggest possibilities for reconfiguring the order

Race, Gender and the Activism of Black Feminist Theory Surya Nayak, 2014-09-04 Beginning from the premise that psychology needs to be questioned dismantled and new perspectives brought to the table in order to produce alternative solutions this book takes an unusual transdisciplinary step into the activism of Black feminist theory The author Surya Nayak presents a close reading of Audre Lorde and other related scholars to demonstrate how the activism of Black feminist theory is concerned with issues central to radical critical thinking and practice such as identity alienation trauma loss the position and constitution of individuals within relationships the family community and society Nayak reveals how Black feminist theory seeks to address issues that are also a core concern of critical psychology including individualism essentialism and normalization Her work grapples with several issues at the heart of key contemporary debates concerning methodology identity difference race and gender Using a powerful line of argument the book weaves these themes together to show how the activism of Black feminist theory in general and the work of Audre Lorde in particular can be used to effect social change in response to the damaging psychological impact of oppressive social constructions Race Gender and the Activism of Black Feminist Theory will be of great interest to advanced students researchers political activist and practitioners in psychology counselling psychotherapy mental health social work and community development

Black Skins, Black Masks Shirley Anne Tate, 2017-07-05 Black Skin Black Masks Hybridity Dialogism Performativity offers a timely exploration of Black identity and its negotiation The book draws on empirical work recording everyday conversations between Black women friends peers and family members These conversations are discussed in the light of the work of Homi Bhabha Stuart Hall Gerd Baumann Claire Alexander and others on questions of hybridity identity otherness and the development of new ethnicities Tate aims to address what she sees as significant omissions in contemporary Black Cultural Studies She argues that theorists have rarely looked at the process of identity construction in terms of lived experience and that they have tended to concentrate on the demise of the essential Black subject paying little attention to gender The book points to a continuation of a politics of the skin in Black identities As such it argues against Bhabha s claim that essence is not central to hybrid identities The conversations recorded in the book reveal the ways in which women negotiate the category of Blackness in what Tate calls a hybridity of the everyday The book introduces a new interpretative vocabulary to look at the ways in which hybridity is orchestrated and fashioned showing it to be performative dialogical and dependent on essentialism Companion to the New Literatures in English Christa Jansohn,2002 Studies in Latin American Popular Culture ,2006 *Luso-Braz.
