Small Arms And Light Weapons Legal Aspects Of National And International Regulations Proceedings:

The Arms Trade and International Law Zeray Yihdego, 2007-11-16 Shortlisted for the 2008 Young Authors Inner Temple Book Prize There are believed to be about 700 million small arms and light weapons SALW in the world often contributing to highly destabilising security and other concerns in international law SALW are the primary source of violations and abuses of humanitarian and human rights principles by states rebels terrorists and criminals Many consider them the real weapons of mass destruction of our time causing about half a million deaths annually The unrestricted international transfer of SALW by states 99 states and 1000 companies involved in manufacturing and supply is one of the major contributory and aggravating factors of this crisis another is the illicit traffic in small arms This book deals with the proliferation of SALW and their unregulated trade and transfer across borders It addresses questions of definition manufacturing trade transfer and issues relating to state responsibility The primary focus is on conventional small arms in particular military style weapons The book tackles the core and most divisive legal problem of whether or not the laws relating to arms control and relevant norms of international law provide substantive restrictions upon the transfer of small arms by states The application of the norms of international peace and security non intervention humanitarian and human rights laws and evolved relevant customary rules of arms control relating to these norms are considered particularly carefully Questions of application and enforcement of relevant rules and institutional responses to the problem are also examined The UN began considering an arms trade treaty in 2006 the publication of the book at this critical moment in time will make a positive contribution towards shaping the debate and aims to further enhance understanding in an area where close analysis is required Proceedings of the Forty-ninth Pugwash Conference on Science and World Affairs, Rustenburg, South Africa, 7-13 September 1999 Joseph Rotblat, 2001 In September 1999 scientists and scholars from around the world concerned with reducing the danger of armed conflict and seeking cooperative solutions to global problems met under the auspices of the Pugwash conferences the Nobel Prize winning organization The proceedings deal with a broad range of issues including a nuclear weapon free world emerging security threats development environment and international governance

Small Arms and Light Weapons:
Legal Aspects of National and International Regulations, 2002 Small Arms and Light Weapons Erwin Dahinden, Julie Dahlitz, Nadia Fischer, 2002 There are over 600 million small arms and light weapons SALW in circulation worldwide Of 49 major conflicts in the 1990s 47 were waged with small arms as the weapons of choice Small arms are responsible for over half a million deaths per year including 300 000 in armed conflict and 200 000 more from homicides and suicides Multilateral cooperation in this area took a significant step forward when the United Nations Conference on the Illicit Traffic in Small Arms and Light Weapons in All Its Aspects was held from 9-20 July 2001 at UN Headquarters in New York The General Assembly in its Resolution 56/24V welcomed the adoption of the PoA and reiterated Member States support for action to curb the illicit flow of small arms and light weapons This fourth volume in the Arms Control and Disarmament

Law series addresses the issue of small arms and light weapons from the legal point of view presented at the seminar on Small Arms and Light Weapons Legal Aspects of National and International Regulations from Un website

Postinternationalism and Small Arms Control Damien Rogers, 2016-04-08 Even though impacts generated by the widespread availability and ongoing use of small arms and light weapons have not reached a magnitude sufficient to radically reorder contemporary world affairs awareness of the nature and extent of these impacts has compelled some international actors to take decisive action Damien Rogers examines how the international community has responded to the challenge of controlling small arms and light weapons since the early 1990s Using a postinternationalist analytic framework he specifically focuses on the maturing relationships between particular actors of world affairs and the nascent interconnectivity between their strategies for and approaches toward controlling these weapons Furthermore the book identifies ways in which the captains of small arms industry arms brokers and chief users of these weapons are able to mitigate resist or elude the intended effects of those responses

Arms Control and Global Security Paul R. Viotti, 2010-04-12 An essential guide offers a comprehensive collection of edited and annotated arms control documents dating from the late 19th century to the present day Sometimes successful and sometimes not arms control agreements are strenuously negotiated by the parties involved yet they quickly become obsolete as technology advances and new weapons come on the scene Thus such agreements are best understood strategically not as ends in themselves but rather as one essential avenue of securing national and global security an important means of allowing countries around the world to work out their differences at the negotiating table instead of on the battlefield Arms Control and Global Security A Document Guide offers an unprecedented and comprehensive collection of arms control documents dating from the late 19th century to the present The book includes documents addressing the control of weapons of mass destruction the banning of biological and chemical weapons the weaponization of space regional arms control and bilateral agreements as well as the limitations of conventional weaponry The documents are edited and annotated for nonspecialists and charts tables and sidebars provide additional information throughout Yearbook of International Humanitarian Law - 2001 Avril McDonald, John Dugard, William Fenrick, Hans-Peter Gasser, Christopher Greenwood, Hortensia Gutierrez Posse, 2011-01-07 The defining moments of 2001 the terrorist attacks of September 11 against the United States of America marked a turning point in international law and relations By their scale and audaciousness overnight they helped to propel the issue of international terrorism to the top of the international security agenda and particularly that of the USA with consequences for many branches of international law including the jus ad bellum the jus in bello international law relating to terrorism international human rights law and international criminal law that were just beginning to be felt as the year closed The September 11 attacks were immediately characterised by the United States as an act of war an armed attack on such a scale as to constitute an armed conflict Its immediate response was to declare a so called Global War on Terrorism Avowedly acting in self defense on 7 October the US launched armed attacks against Afghanistan not because Afghanistan was considered to be legally responsible for the September 11 attacks but for harbouring and refusing to surrender members of Al Qaeda including its leader Osama Bin Laden and refusing to dismantle terrorist training camps Although the main target of the attacks was Al Qaeda the armed conflict that ensued was an international armed conflict between the US and its allies and the state of Afghanistan notwithstanding that the US never recognised the Taliban as the government of Afghanistan The Law of Armed Conflict and the Use of Force Frauke Lachenmann, Rüdiger Wolfrum, 2017 This volume collects articles on the law of armed conflict and the use of force from the Max Planck Encyclopedia of Public International Law to facilitate easy access to content from the leading reference work in international law Small Arms and Light Weapons Julie Dahlitz, Nadia Fischer, Erwin Dahinden, Disarmament Diplomacy and Human Security Denise Garcia, 2011-02-08 This book assesses how progress in disarmament diplomacy in the last decade has improved human security It examines moral and normative progress in international relations by investigating three cases the Arms Trade Treaty ATT the ban on cluster munitions and the international regime on small arms and light weapons

The Arms Trade Treaty: A

Commentary Andrew Clapham, Stuart Casey-Maslen, Gilles Giacca, Sarah Parker, 2016-07-28 The United Nations Arms Trade Treaty became binding international law in late 2014 and although the text of the treaty is a relatively concise framework for assessing whether to authorize or deny proposed conventional weapons transfers by States Parties there exists controversy as to the meaning of certain key provisions Furthermore the treaty requires a national regulatory body to authorize proposed transfers of conventional weapons covered by the treaty but does not detail how such a body should be established and how it should effectively function The Arms Trade Treaty A Commentary explains in detail each of the treaty provisions the parameters for prohibitions or the denial of transfers international cooperation and assistance and implementation obligations and mechanisms As states ratify and implement the Treaty over the next few years the commentary provides invaluable guidance to government officials commentators and scholars on the meaning of its contentious provisions This volume describes in detail which weapons are covered by the treaty and explains the different forms of transfer that the Arms Trade Treaty regulates It covers international human rights trade disarmament humanitarian law criminal law and state to state use of force as well as the application of the treaty to non state actors
