Reframing Personalism in Karl Barth Sara Mannen,2025-10-13 Sara Mannen in her book rejects the notion that Karl Barth's theology makes God in the image of the modern autonomous subject and argues that his concept of divine personhood is best understood when reframed through the intellectual context that resulted from the Pantheism Controversy which explicitly revolved around issues of the knowledge and nature of God and divine personhood The work of Mendelssohn Jacobi Fichte Herder and Schelling created an environment that necessitated theologians address the concepts of divine personhood divine absoluteness and modern questions of theological epistemology Mannen argues that Barth's distinctly modern conception of divine personhood reflects and responds to this environment by providing the necessary divine ontological foundation that establishes God is capable of self revelation without detriment to God's absoluteness and that Barth's motivation for the occasional use of counterfactual language is to maintain God's personal nature and identity

The Ancient Egyptian Books of the Earth Joshua Aaron Roberson, 2014-06-23 Collections of scenes and texts designated variously as the Book of the Earth Creation of the Solar Disc and Book of Aker were inscribed on the walls of royal sarcophagus chambers throughout Egypt's Ramessid period Dynasties 19-20. This material illustrated discrete episodes from the nocturnal voyage of the sun god which functioned as a model for the resurrection of the deceased king. These earliest Books of the Earth employed mostly ad hoc arrangements of scenes united by shared elements of iconography and an overarching bipartite symmetry of composition and their frequent pairing with representations of the double sky overhead. From the Twenty First Dynasty and later selections of programmatic tableaux were adapted for use in private mortuary contexts often in conjunction with innovative or previously unattested annotations. The present study collects and analyzes all currently known Book of the Earth material including discussions of iconography, grammar, orthography and architectural setting.

Humaniqueness: the Gift of Your Inner God Glauco Ortolano, 2008-09-03 HUMANIQUENESS is a thought provoking response to contemporary scientific theories that claim to have found the missing link between humans and aquatic species that lived billions of years ago. Glauco Ortolano writes an inspirational book linking humans to a more divine heritage instead. From a poem written by Vicente Huidobro, an early 20th Century Chilean poet, Ortolano builds a fascinating paradigm to enlighten the reader on how we became the only species to have been endowed with the gift of both oral and written languages. We are small gods, not evolved fish, affirms Ortolano. Humaniqueness is a must read to anyone interested in gaining a deeper understanding of what it means to be human and semi-divine. It will bring you into full realization of our unique faculties, gifts and destiny as a species.
