Smashupstory Of A Woman:

Women Screenwriters Jill Neldes, Jule Selbo, 2015-09-29 Women Screenwriters is a study of more than 300 female writers from 60 nations from the first film scenarios produced in 1986 to the present day Divided into six sections by continent the entries give an overview of the history of women screenwriters in each country as well as individual biographies of its most influential

Hollywood's Censor Thomas Doherty, 2009-03-31 From 1934 to 1954 Joseph I Breen a media savvy Victorian Irishman reigned over the Production Code Administration the Hollywood office tasked with censoring the American screen Though little known outside the ranks of the studio system this former journalist and public relations agent was one of the most powerful men in the motion picture industry As enforcer of the puritanical Production Code Breen dictated final cut over more movies than anyone in the history of American cinema His editorial decisions profoundly influenced the images and values projected by Hollywood during the Great Depression World War II and the Cold War Cultural historian Thomas Doherty tells the absorbing story of Breen's ascent to power and the widespread effects of his reign Breen vetted story lines blue penciled dialogue and excised footage a process that came to be known as Breening to fit the demands of his strict moral framework Empowered by industry insiders and millions of like minded Catholics who supported his missionary zeal Breen strove to protect innocent souls from the temptations beckoning from the motion picture screen There were few elements of cinematic production beyond Breen's reach he oversaw the editing of A list feature films low budget B movies short subjects previews of coming attractions and even cartoons Populated by a colorful cast of characters including Catholic priests Jewish moguls visionary auteurs hardnosed journalists and bluenose agitators Doherty's insightful behind the scenes portrait brings a tumultuous era and an individual both feared and admired to vivid life

E-motion Picture Magic Birgit Wolz, 2005 Like no other medium before it the popular movie presents the potential of a new power for illuminating the depth of human experience E Motion Picture Magic employs that power as a tool to increase consciousness Cinema therapy offers more perspective on life prompting the viewer to step back from his or her problems in order to feel less insecure worried or discontented Using films for self improvement allows a shift in perspective when viewed with conscious awareness The use of movies for personal growth and healing carries forward a long standing connection between storytelling and self reflection that may date back to the beginnings of spoken language The movie experience used in very specific ways can have significant benefits for those who are willing to apply themselves using E Motion Picture Magic that can be both beneficial as well as enjoyable

I Do and I Don't Jeanine Basinger, 2014-03-11 Here is happily ever after except when things aren't happy and when ever after is abruptly terminated by divorce tragedy or even murder With her large hearted understanding of how movies and audiences work leading film historian Jeanine Basinger traces the many ways Hollywood has tussled with the tricky subject of marriage explicating the relationships of countless marriages from Blondie and Dagwood to the heartrending couple in the Iranian A Separation from Coach and his wife in

Friday Night Lights to Tracy and Hepburn and even to Laurel and Hardy a marriage if ever there was one A treasure trove of insight and sympathy illustrated with scores of wonderfully telling movie stills posters and ads The Encyclopedia of Film James Monaco,1991 An alphabetical reference on the major film figures stars producers directors writers et al past and present Each entry provides a substantial career biography and a complete listing of all films the individual has been involved with Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Hollywood Shot by Shot Norman K. Denzin,2017-09-04 To what extent have Hollywood feature films shaped the meanings that Americans attach to alcoholics their families and the alcoholic condition To what extent has the mass culture of the movie industry itself been conceptually shaped by a broad external societal discourse Norman Denzin brings to his life long study of alcoholism a searching interest in how cultural texts signify and lend themselves to interpretation within a social nexus Both historical and diachronic in his approach Denzin identifies five periods in the alcoholism films made between 1932 and the end of the 1980s and offers a detailed critical reading of thirty seven films produced during these six decades "Keep 'Em in the East" Richard Koszarski,2021-07-20 The year 1955 was a watershed one for New York s film industry Elia Kazan s On the Waterfront took home eight Oscars and more quietly Stanley Kubrick released the low budget classic Killer s Kiss A wave of films that changed how American movies were made soon followed led by directors such as Sidney Lumet William Friedkin Francis Ford Coppola and Martin Scorsese Yet this resurgence could not have occurred without a deeply rooted tradition of local film production Richard Koszarski chronicles the compelling and often surprising origins of New York s postwar film renaissance looking beyond such classics as Naked City Kiss of Death and Portrait of Jennie He examines the social cultural and economic forces that shaped New York filmmaking from city politics to union regulations and shows how decades of low budget independent production taught local filmmakers how to capture the city s grit liveliness and allure He reveals the importance of race films all Black productions intended for segregated African American audiences that not only helped keep the film business afloat but also nurtured a core group of writers directors designers and technicians Detailed production histories of On the Waterfront and Killer s Kiss films that appear here in a completely new light illustrate the distinctive characteristics of New York cinema Drawing on a vast array of research including studio libraries censorship records union archives and interviews with participants Keep Em in the East rewrites a crucial chapter in the history of American cinema

Encyclopedia of Feminist Literature Mary Ellen Snodgrass,2014-05-14 An accessible one volume encyclopedia this addition to the Literary Movements series is a comprehensive reference guide to the history and development of feminist literature from early fairy tales to works by great women writers of today Hundred A Woman's View Jeanine Basinger,2013-09-04 Now Voyager Stella Dallas Leaver Her to Heaven Imitation of Life Mildred Pierce Gilda these are only a few of the hundreds of women s films that poured out of Hollywood during the thirties forties and fifties The films were widely disparate in subject sentiment and technique they nonetheless shared one dual purpose to provide the audience of women primarily with temporary liberation into a screen dream of romance sexuality luxury suffering or even wickedness and then send it home reminded of reassured by and resigned to the fact that no matter what else she might do a woman's most important job was to be a woman Now with boundless knowledge and infectious enthusiasm Jeanine Basinger illuminates the various surprising and subversive ways in which women's films delivered their message Basinger examines dozens of films exploring the seemingly intractable contradictions at the convoluted heart of the woman's genre among them the dilemma of the strong and glamorous woman who cedes her power when she feels it threatening her personal happiness and the self abnegating woman whose selflessness is not always as noble as it appears Basinger looks at the stars who played these women and helps us understand the qualities the right off screen personae the right on screen attitudes the right faces that made them personify the woman's film and equipped them to make believable drama or comedy out of the crackpot plots the conflicting ideas and the exaggerations of real behavior that characterize these movies In each of the films the author discusses whether melodrama screwball comedy musical film noir western or biopic a woman occupies the center of her particular universe Her story in its endless variations of rags to riches boy meets girl battle of the sexes mother love doomed romance inevitably sends a highly potent mixed message Yes you women belong in your proper place that is content with the Big Three of the woman's film world men marriage and motherhood but meanwhile and paradoxically see what fun glamour and power you can enjoy along the way A Woman's View deepens our understanding of the times and circumstances and attitudes out of which these movies were created

Woman's Home Companion

,1928 Lady Lushes Michelle L. McClellan,2017-11-30 According to the popular press in the mid twentieth century American women in a misguided attempt to act like men in work and leisure were drinking more Lady Lushes were becoming a widespread social phenomenon From the glamorous hard drinking flapper of the 1920s to the disgraced and alcoholic wife and mother played by Lee Remick in the 1962 film Days of Wine and Roses alcohol consumption by American women has been seen as both a prerogative and as a threat to health happiness and the social order In Lady Lushes medical historian Michelle L McClellan traces the story of the female alcoholic from the late nineteenth through the twentieth century She draws on a range of sources to demonstrate the persistence of the belief that alcohol use is antithetical to an idealized feminine role particularly one that glorifies motherhood Lady Lushes offers a fresh perspective on the importance of gender role ideology in the formation of medical knowledge and authority

In a Lonely Street Frank Krutnik, 2006-10-19 Taking issue with many orthodox views of Film Noir Frank Krutnik argues for a reorientation of this compulsively engaging area of Hollywood cultural production Krutnik recasts the films within a generic framework and draws on recent historical and theoretical research to examine both the diversity of film noir and its significance within American popular culture of the 1940s He considers classical Hollywood cinema debates on genre and the history of the emergence of character in film noir focusing on the hard boiled crime fiction of Dashiell Hammett Raymond Chandler and James M Cain as well as the popularisation of Freudian psychoanalysis and the social and cultural upheavals of the 1940s The core of this book however concerns the complex representation of masculinity in the noir tough thriller and where and how gender interlocks with questions of genre Analysing in detail major thrillers like The Maltese Falcon Double Indemnity Out of the Past and The Killers alongside lesser known but nonetheless crucial films as Stranger on the Third Floor Pitfall and Dead Reckoning Krutnik has produced a provocative and highly readable study of one of Hollywood most perennially fascinating groups of films
