Survival in Society Eugene Heimler, British Association of Social Functioning, 2010 The Palliative Society
Byung-Chul Han, 2021-06-24 Our societies today are characterized by a universal algophobia a generalized fear of pain We strive to avoid all painful conditions even the pain of love is treated as suspect This algophobia extends into society less and less space is given to conflicts and controversies that might prompt painful discussions It takes hold of politics too politics becomes a palliative politics that is incapable of implementing radical reforms that might be painful so all we get is more of the same Faced with the coronavirus pandemic the palliative society is transformed into a society of survival The virus enters the palliative zone of well being and turns it into a quarantine zone in which life is increasingly focused on survival And the more life becomes survival the greater the fear of death the pandemic makes death which we had carefully repressed and set aside visible again Everywhere the prolongation of life at any cost is the preeminent value and we are prepared to sacrifice everything that makes life worth living for the sake of survival This trenchant analysis of our contemporary societies by one of the most original cultural critics of our time will appeal to a wide readership Journal of the American Society for Psychical Research American Society for Psychical Research, 1922 List of members in v 1 6 12 Journal of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain), 1899 The Science of Society William Graham Sumner, Albert Galloway Keller, Maurice Rea Davie, 1927 Vols 1 3 paged continuously Vol 4 by W G Sumner A G Keller and M R Davie Published under the auspices of the Sumner Club on the foundation established in memory of Philip Hamilton McMillan of the class of 1894 Yale College Bibliographical note v 4 p 1193 1268 Journal of the American Chemical Society American Chemical Society, 1925 Proceedings of the Society are included in v 1 59 1879 1937 Proceedings of the Royal Society of Edinburgh Royal Society of Edinburgh, 1919 List of fellows for 1908 in v 25 Proceedings of the Society for Psychical Research Society for Psychical Research (Great Britain), 1915 List of members in v 1 19 21 24
