Women and Conflict in the Middle East Maria Holt, 2013-11-27 Women in conflict zones face a wide range of violence from physical and psychological trauma to political economic and social disadvantage And the sources of the violence are varied also from the public violence of the enemy to the more private violence of the family Maria Holt uses her research gathered in the Palestinian refugee camps of Lebanon and in the West Bank to look at the forms of violence suffered by women in the context of the wider conflict around them Drawing on first hand accounts of women who have either participated in been victims of or bystanders to violence Women and Conflict in the Middle East highlights the complex situation of these refugees and explores how many of them become involved in resistance activities It thus makes essential reading for students of the Israel Palestine conflict as well as those interested in the gender dimension of conflict Syria's Terrorist War on Lebanon and the Peace Process M.

Deeb,2003-07-03 This study demonstrates that Syria s role in the Middle East has been since 1974 an unabated terrorist war against all attempts to resolve peacefully the Arab Israeli conflict Marius Deeb provides evidence that Syria s role in Lebanon since 1975 has been to perpetuate the conflict among the various Lebanese communities in order to keep its domination of Lebanon

School Level Leadership in Post-conflict Societies Simon R. P. Clarke,Thomas A. O'Donoghue,2013-07-18 How do different contexts influence the nature and character of school leadership This book is predicated on the simple yet profound observation that school leadership can only be understood within the context in which it is exercised The observation is particularly valid in relation to post conflict societies especially when they have eventuated from new wars Schools in these contexts face highly complex circumstances and a level of environmental turbulence requiring different kinds of leadership from those operating in less complicated and relatively stable situations By assembling an impressive array of international experts this book investigates a much neglected area of research Each chapter highlights the importance of context for understanding the realities of school leadership and reveals the challenges and influences that school leaders face as well as the strategies they adopt to deal with the complexities of their work In particular valuable insights are provided into how intractable problems faced by schools can affect student professional and organizational learning agendas There are also important glimpses of the progression that can be made in schools by Enhancing the curriculum Energizing teaching capacity and Optimising leadership capacity Depictions of post new war environments include Angola Ghana Sri Lanka Rwanda Kenya Solomon Islands Lebanon Kosovo Timor Leste and Northern Ireland The book will be key reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students studying educational leadership comparative education and education policy

Sexuality and War Evelyne Accad,1990-12-01 A courageous analysis of Arab writers addressing the connections between masculinity violence and nationalism Robin Morgan Ms Rarely have sexuality and war been treated with such poignancy and historical concreteness The force of these often intertwined phenomena endemic to the human condition are considered with incisive and wrenching specificity from within one of the most baneful convergences of sexuality and war in recent history Djelal Kadir editor World Literature Today Personal powerful passionate uncensored Fedwa Malti Douglas The Journal of Women s History A welcome departure from stereotypical nationalist conceptions from which no solutions to the current impasse can possibly emerge Joel Benin The Middle East Report Accad's extraordinary pacifism is deeply compelling to women as it is deeply challenging to men Andrea Dworkin A splendid book Drawing on interviews with Lebanon's village women and her close readings of Lebanon's contemporary novelists Accad manages to pull back the veil that has shrouded so many conventional nationalisms revealing their roots in men's effort to control women's sexuality Cynthia Enloe author of Does Khaki Become You Extraordinary in weaving together literature feminist theory and theories of war and violence Her analysis of the relationships between sexuality war and nationalism is stunning in its frankness and importance Berenice A Carroll Purdue University It is in the women's writings on the Lebanese civil war that Accad discerns alternative visions that could shape a non-violent reality Miriam Cooke The Middle East Studies This book should remind us how patriarchies can operate similarly in societies we most often define through difference Accad's forthright critically respectful caring treatment of Lebanese lives and worlds resonates as we engage with the long-term repercussions of the Gulf War Marilyn Booth Women's Review of Books This compelling book offers an exploration of the indissoluble link between war and sexuality based on over twelve years of interviews by the well-known Lebanese expatriate teacher critic and writer Evelyne Accad explores what she calls the indissoluble link between war and sexuality She refers to sexuality as the physical and psychological relations of men and women and examines Middle Eastern customs involved in defining such relationships She argues that many of the problems faced by societies at war stem from the way male sexuality is viewed and imposed and from the oppression of women within cultural parameters For twelve years Professor Accad interviewed women throughout the Middle East about their sexuality and relationships with men On the basis of these interviews and a close study of six novels written by both men and women on the subject of the Lebanese war she explores the connection between sexuality and war and contrasts the reactions of male authors with those of their female counterparts Each author views war as having roots in sexuality Evelyne Accad concludes that there is a need for a new rapport between men and women women and women and men and men there is a need for relationships based on trust recognition of the other tenderness equal sharing and love devoid of jealousy and possession Since the personal is the political changes in relationships traditionally based on domination oppression and power games will inevitably rebound in other spheres of life
