Survivors On The Gold Coast:

Survivors on the Gold Coast Peter Alexander Schweizer, 2000 The Experiences of Ghanaian Live-in Caregivers in the United States Martha Donkor, 2017-11-15 Using the convergence of the impact of globalization and political turmoil in Ghana on Ghanaian women as a backdrop this book examines the migration of the women to the US and their decisions to care for upper middle class white seniors who elected to stay in their homes to be cared for by private caregivers The book explores the attraction of domestic care work the women s perceptions of their job their relationships with their clients and the dynamics of their relationships with their immediate families and families left behind in Ghana It also analyzes the women s interactions with the immigrant community from their remote work sites The book examines widely held beliefs about domestic work as undervalued under remunerated and relegated to marginalized immigrant women of color While admitting that these problems exist the women whose stories are told in the book did not believe that their brand of care work which they called private practice was undervalued or underpaid They also did not think that racism played a role in the concentration of immigrant women of color in domestic care work as widely believed although again the women admitted that there was racism in American society By doing so the women symbolically placed themselves beyond the institutional barriers that constrain the lives of women of color in American society And while it addresses common themes like exploitation abuse restriction of movement etc that other studies of immigrant live in caregiving address this book stands out in two major ways First is its truly transnational character It links the women s background in Ghana to their immigration history and how these two influenced their choice as well as perceptions of care work and then loops their experience of care work back to expectations in Ghana Second the book validates the women s voices as a product of their cultural background thus making the case that the women s choices and experiences were informed by conditions in the US and the cultural baggage the women brought with them The book argues that private care work satisfied women s financial expectations and with that leverage in their families

Oxford Street, Accra Ato Quayson, 2014-09-03 In Oxford Street Accra Ato Quayson analyzes the dynamics of Ghana s capital city through a focus on Oxford Street part of Accra s most vibrant and globalized commercial district He traces the city s evolution from its settlement in the mid seventeenth century to the present day He combines his impressions of the sights sounds interactions and distribution of space with broader dynamics including the histories of colonial and postcolonial town planning and the marks of transnationalism evident in Accra s salsa scene gym culture and commercial billboards Quayson finds that the various planning systems that have shaped the city and had their stratifying effects intensified by the IMF mandated structural adjustment programs of the late 1980s prepared the way for the early 1990s transformation of a largely residential neighborhood into a kinetic shopping district With an intense commercialism overlying or coexisting with stark economic inequalities Oxford Street is a microcosm of historical and urban processes that have made Accra the variegated and contradictory metropolis that it is today Market Encounters Bianca

Murillo,2017-10-16 In Market Encounters Bianca Murillo explores the shifting social terrains that made the buying and selling of goods in modern Ghana possible Fusing economic and business history with social and cultural history she traces the evolution of consumerism in the colonial Gold Coast and independent Ghana from the late nineteenth century through to the political turmoil of the 1970s Murillo brings sales clerks market women and everyday consumers in Ghana to the center of a story that is all too often told in sweeping metanarratives about what happens when African businesses are incorporated into global markets By emphasizing the centrality of human relationships to Ghana s economic past Murillo introduces a radical rethinking of consumption studies from an Africa centered perspective The result is a keen look at colonial capitalism in all of its intricacies legacies and contradictions including its entanglement with gender and race Dictionary of

African Biography Emmanuel Kwaku Akyeampong,Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr.,2012-02-02 From the Pharaohs to Fanon Dictionary of African Biography provides a comprehensive overview of the lives of the men and women who shaped Africa s history Unprecedented in scale DAB covers the whole continent from Tunisia to South Africa from Sierra Leone to Somalia It also encompasses the full scope of history from Queen Hatsheput of Egypt 1490 1468 BC and Hannibal the military commander and strategist of Carthage 243 183 BC to Kwame Nkrumah of Ghana 1909 1972 Miriam Makeba and Nelson Mandela of South Africa 1918 From Africa to America Moses O. Biney,2011-01-05 Upon arrival in the United States most African immigrants are immediately subsumed under the category black In the eyes of most Americans and more so to American legal and social systems African immigrants are indistinguishable from all others such as those from the Caribbean whose skin color they share Despite their growing presence in many cities and their active involvement in sectors of American economic social and cultural life we know little about them In From Africa to America Moses O Biney offers a rare full scale look at an African immigrant congregation the Presbyterian Church of Ghana in New York PCGNY Through personal stories notes from participant observation and interviews Biney explores the complexities of the social economic and cultural adaptation of this group the difficult moral choices they have to make in order to survive and the tensions that exist within their faith community Most notably through his compelling research Biney shows that such congregations are more than mere ethnic enclaves or safe havens from American social and cultural values Rather they help maintain the essential balance between cultural acclimation and ethnic preservation needed for these new citizens to flourish Medical

Missionaries and Colonial Knowledge in West Africa and Europe, 1885-1914 Linda Maria Ratschiller Nasim,2023-11-02 This open access book offers an entangled history of hygiene by showing how knowledge of purity health and cleanliness was shaped by evangelical medical missionaries and their encounters with people in West Africa By tracing the interactions and negotiations of six Basel Mission doctors who practised on the Gold Coast and in Cameroon from 1885 to 1914 the author demonstrates how notions of religious purity scientific health and colonial cleanliness came together in the making of hygiene during the age of High Imperialism The heyday of evangelical medical missions abroad coincided with the emergence of tropical medicine as a scientific discipline during what became known as the Scramble for Africa This book reveals that these projects were intertwined and that hygiene played an important role in all three of them While most historians have examined modern hygiene as a European bourgeois and scientific phenomenon the author highlights both the colonial and the religious fabric of hygiene which continues to shape our understanding of purity health and cleanliness to this day
