M. Thackeray,2015-07-18 Excerpt from The Four Georges I often thought as I took my kind old friend s hand how with it I held on to the old society of wits and men of the world I could travel back for seven score years of time have glimpses of Brummell Selwyn Chesterfield and the men of pleasure of Walpole and Conway of Johnson Reynolds Goldsmith of North Chatham Newcastle of the fair maids of honour of George II s court of the German retainers of George I s where Addison was secretary of state where Dick Steele held a place whither the great Marlborough came with his fiery spouse when Pope and Swift and Bolingbroke yet lived and wrote Of a society so vast busy brilliant it is impossible in four brief chapters to give a complete notion but we may peep here and there into that bygone world of the Georges see what they and their courts were like glance at the people round about them look at past manners fashions pleasures and contrast them with our own About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works A History of the Four Georges and of William IV, Volume IV McCarthy Justin, 2016-06-23 Unlike some other reproductions of classic texts 1 We have not used OCR Optical Character Recognition as this leads to bad quality books with introduced typos 2 In books where there are images such as portraits maps sketches etc We have endeavoured to keep the quality of these images so they represent accurately the original artefact Although occasionally there may be certain imperfections with these old texts we feel they deserve to be made available for future generations to enjoy
