Slow Man:

Slow Man J. M. Coetzee, 2017-04-04 J M Coetzee's latest novel The Schooldays of Jesus is now available from Viking Late Essays 2006 2016 will be available January 2018 J M Coetzee one of the greatest living writers in the English language has crafted a deeply moving tale of love and mortality in his new book Slow Man When photographer Paul Rayment loses his leg in a bicycle accident he is forced to reexamine how he has lived his life Through Paul's story Coetzee addresses questions that define us all What does it mean to do good What in our lives is ultimately meaningful How do we define the place we call home In his clear and uncompromising voice Coetzee struggles with these issues and offers a story that will dazzle the reader on every page The Slow Philosophy of J. M. Coetzee Jan Wilm, 2016-06-16 In The Slow Philosophy of J M Coetzee Jan Wilm analyses Coetzee's singular aesthetic style which he argues provokes the reader to read his works slowly The effected slow reading is developed into a method specifically geared to analyzing Coetzee's singular oeuvre and it is shown that his works productively decelerate the reading process only to dynamize the reader's reflexion in a way that may be termed philosophical Drawing on fresh archival material this is the first study of its kind to explore Coetzee's writing process as already slow as a program of seemingly relentless revision which brings forth his uniquely dense and crystalline style Through the incorporation of material from drafts and notebooks this study is also the first to combine an exploration of the writer's stylistic choices with a rigorous analysis of the reader's responses The book includes close readings of Coetzee's popular and lesser known work including Disgrace Waiting for the Barbarians Elizabeth Costello Life and Times of Michael K and Slow Man J. M. Coetzee and the Ethics of Narrative Transgression Alexandra Effe, 2017-08-16 This book is about the metanarrative and metafictional elements of J M Coetzee's novels It draws together authorship readership ethics and formal analysis into one overarching argument about how narratives work the boundary between art and life On the basis of Coetzee's writing it reconsiders the concept of metalepsis challenges common understandings of self reflexive discourse and invites us to rethink our practice as critics and readers This study analyzes Coetzee's novels in three chapters organized thematically around the author's relation with character reader and self Author and character are discussed on the basis of Foe Slow Man and Coetzee's Nobel lecture He and His Man Stories featuring the character Elizabeth Costello or the figuration Elizabeth Curren serve to elaborate the relation of author and reader The study ends on a reading of Summertime Diary of a Bad Year and Dusklands as Coetzee's engagement with autobiographical writing analyzing the relation of author and self It will appeal to readers with an interest in literary and narrative theory as much as to Coetzee scholars and advanced students The Wykehamist, 1866 People and Rail Systems John R. Wilson, Beverley Norris, Ann Mills, 2016-12-05 Following on from 2005's Rail Human Factors Supporting the Integrated Railway this book brings together an even broader range of academics and practitioners from around the world to share their expertise and experience on rail human factors The content is both comprehensive and cutting edge featuring more than 55 chapters addressing the following

The Westminster Pulpit vol. VI G. Campbell Morgan, 2012-02-06 G Campbell Morgan Reprint Series Foreword If it is true that the measure of a person's greatness is their influence not only on his own time but on future generations G Campbell Morgan must be regarded as a great person His greatness is seen not only in the wide impact of his ministry on both sides of the Atlantic but in the fact that his books are still read and studied sixty five years after his death Named one of the ten greatest preachers of the twentieth century by the contributing board of Preaching magazine Morgan made the Bible a new and living book not only to the congregations who listened to him but the vast multitude of persons who read his books Fox sixty seven years Morgan preached and taught the Scriptures and served churches in England and the United States What is remarkable is that his commentaries and expositions of the Bible still speak to persons of a new millennium There have been many changes in the world since he faithfully preached and taught the Scriptures but the wide appeal of his books testify to the timelessness of his message Although he held pastorates in the Congregational and Presbyterian denominations he had an ecumenical appeal to persons of all denominations and traditions The mystic Thomas Kempis once wrote He to whom the eternal word speaks is delivered from many opinions In one of his sermons he referred to the words of Amos that there would be a famine for hearing the word of God Amos 8 11 The timeless work of G Campbell Morgan addresses that hunger as his books enable his readers to get beyond opinions to the living Word Wipf and Stock Publishers have rendered a great gift to the religious world in reprinting dozens of Morgan's books This growing collection makes his books more available so that readers have an option other than searching the internet for used and often expensive copies Among this collection is the classic The Great Physician and commentaries on the Gospel of Matthew and John Persons seeking a living faith and a meaningful encounter with God would profit from reading any of these Morgan books Near the end of his ministry in a sermon entitled But One Thing Morgan commented on how Portugal changed the words of a coin after Christopher Columbus

Coetzee's Austerities Graham Bradshaw, Michael Neill, 2016-05-06 Representing a wide range of critical and theoretical perspectives this volume examines J M Coetzee's novels from Dusklands to Diary of a Bad Year The choice of essays reflects three broad goals aligning the South African dimension of Coetzee's writing with his late modernist aesthetic exploring the relationship between Coetzee's novels and his essays on linguistics and paying particular attention to his more recent fictional experiments These objectives are realized in essays focusing on among other matters the function of names and etymology in Coetzee's fiction the vexed relationship between art and politics in apartheid South Africa the importance of film in Coetzee's literary sensibility Coetzee's reworkings of Defoe the paradoxes inherent in confessional narratives ethics and the controversial politics of reading Disgrace intertextuality and the fictional self consciousness of Slow Man Through its pronounced emphasis on the novelist's later work the collection points towards a narratological and linguistic reassessment of the Coetzee canon
