Michelle N. Eakin, Hasmeena Kathuria, 2023-02-28 This book is a guide to pharmacotherapy treatment of tobacco dependence. The 2020 American Thoracic Society clinical practice guidelines on treating tobacco dependence serves as the cornerstone for this work with its robust discussion of recommended treatment options and how to tailor treatment to specific patient populations. Tobacco dependence remains a major health concern for many adults and given the dramatic increase of youth electronic cigarette use, clinicians need a singular resource to treat these different populations. This book addresses that by following the three main points of how to best address the adverse impact of tobacco use on public health: 1. prevent initiation of tobacco use, 2. understand mechanisms of addiction, 3. effectively treat tobacco dependence. The book begins by describing the current patterns of product use, the adverse impact of tobacco on global health and tobacco-related health disparities. Authors discuss both combustible and electronic tobacco products as well as current research on the adverse impact of vaping and associated flavorings, including menthol. Role of the e-cigarette in cessation and treatment of adolescent nicotine dependence. Chapters conclude with a discussion of specific tobacco control policies to improve overall public health. This is an ideal guide for pulmonologists, pediatricians, primary care physicians, and other specialty providers who see patients with nicotine dependence. This book is also of interest to public health professions to help inform public health campaigns and treatment offerings to reduce overall tobacco product use through prevention and treatment. Louisiana Criminal Code

The Science And The Story Stephen S. Hecht, Dorothy K. Hatsukami, 2022-01-17 This book tells the fascinating story of the relationship of tobacco products to cancer from the first discoveries to the present-day cancer pandemic and regulatory activities. Although there are already excellent books and monographs on this topic both in the popular press and as government summaries, none relate the scientific story at the level of non-specialist graduate and medical students, researchers, or educated popular science readers. In this book, with a primary focus on the United States, the editors Stephen S. Hecht and Dorothy K. Hatsukami bring together 24 renowned experts on the subject of tobacco and cancer to summarize specific aspects of this critical topic in relatively non-technical terms while also incorporating some personal insights related to the story of the discovery process. This highly authoritative book is also expected to be an excellent teaching tool and basis for a course for graduate and medical students on this important topic. Local Laws of the Cities, Counties, Towns,
