Europe Małgorzata Pakier, Joanna Wawrzyniak, 2015-11-01 In studies of a common European past there is a significant lack of scholarship on the former Eastern Bloc countries While understanding the importance of shifting the focus of European memory eastward contributors to this volume avoid the trap of Eastern European exceptionalism an assumption that this region's experiences are too unique to render them comparable to the rest of Europe They offer a reflection on memory from an Eastern European historical perspective one that can be measured against or applied to historical experience in other parts of Europe In this way the authors situate studies on memory in Eastern Europe within the broader debate on European memory Defending Memory in Global Politics Erica Resende, Doviłė Budrytė, Douglas Becker, 2025-01-27 This book explores the securitization of memory in times of crisis using overlooked cases from the Global South and the Global North Instead of focusing exclusively on national identities and state actors it explores various identities including substate and transnational actors and their role in defending memory during times of crisis Embracing a broad definition of conflict that includes mnemonic societal and armed conflicts the expert contributors engage with political trauma demonstrating its power to evoke commemorations and other shared practices of collective remembrance shaping and perpetuating collective memory the construction of national and transnational identities national interests and foreign policy behaviors The book contributes to the fields of memory and trauma studies and ontological security in international relations It will also be of interest to scholars and students of political science sociology international relations history nationalism and identity international studies cultural geography social psychology cultural studies and anthropology Memory in a Global Age
