Caldwell,2018-03-06 Excerpt from A Survey of American History Vol 1 Source Extracts These studies then are committed to my fellow teachers in the hope that they may aid them a little in solving the difficult problem of how to get our children to understand their own history and to get such an understanding in such a way as to make them mentally and morally stronger that they may be better prepared to meet the exceedingly difficult questions which will confront the coming generation. The writer has no extravagant ideas or expectations in regard to the transforming power of these studies. He simply hopes and believes that they will be found to be an aid.
