C. Robin Skynner,Robin Skynner,John Cleese,1996 What makes people tick What about families organizations such as schools and businesses or societies By understanding them can we make them tick better Where does religion fit in In this entertaining book England s odd couple psychiatrist scholar Robin Skynner and comic John Cleese answer these provocative questions and others as they embark on a fascinating mind stretching search for what really matters in life Cartoons throughout Media publicity The Bloomsbury Handbook of Anglophone Literature and Migration Nicoletta Vallorani,Simona Bertacco,William Boelhower,2025-10-16 Focusing on a significant 70 year period as a climactic phase of displacement the book investigates the role of literature in producing new modes of representing and understanding migration in a global context Globally felt and reported as a geographical sociological anthropological and historical phenomenon migration has produced an unprecedented corpus of literary narratives that demands to be approached through its own set of cross disciplinary critical approaches This Handbook explores tales of migration via a systematic study of the large corpus of Anglophone literary texts that have been written by migrant authors and or on the topic of migration between 1946 and 2016 from the start of the United Nations International Migration Report to the first year in which the number of displaced people reached the level of the Second World War marking a new phase in global migrations Given the dominance of English as a world language often used by writers who are not native speakers the volume covers Anglophone writing providing a substantially representative corpus that includes texts from or about Europe Africa North and Central America and the South Asia and Pacific region Starting from a critical approach that is inherently interdisciplinary authors consider the notion of the border and how it has changed over time show how traditional literary genres have morphed and hybridized to become suitable expressive tools for the new stories of migration reflect on how the movement across borders and countries creates migrant identities that are not only linguistic but invests all aspects of one's life and worldview and includes authors' voices a small but representative group to both justify and test the critical approaches proposed

Mission Partnership in Creative Tension Samuel Cueva, 2015-04-14 Samuel Cueva has refined his concept of partnership in mission by advocating the use of reciprocal contextual collaboration in this important contribution to scholarly reflection on contemporary missiology Referencing historical theological and functional aspects of how mission has been carried out as well as analyzing its impact on the evangelical movement the author identifies that mission always develops with positive and negative tensions Emphasizing an understanding of current missions which include traditional networking and emergent models and how they can be combined interconnected and interchanged the author proposes a fresh model that ensures the suitability for every mission context
