Excerpt from Sketches of Algeria During the Kabyle War Meeting one day with a French officer of some standing whom I had previously known in the East during the Russian campaign I received an invitation to him in Algeria whither he was ordered An expedition for the final subjugation of Kabylia was talked of Here then was an opportunity such as I had long sought for and might never meet with But permission had to be obtained from the French Minister at War and it was in vain I solicited that permission though backed by the recommendation of Lord Cowley and the British Embassy How I besieged Marshal Vaillant and how I totally failed in moving him to grant me permission to accompany the French invading column how through the kindness of the Chief of the Staff in Algeria I partially succeeded would afford little interest to the reader About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
