Skills Of Helping Indiv Fam Text:

The Skills of Helping Individuals, Families, Groups and Communities Lawrence Shulman, 1999 This text focuses on the skills social workers use in the helping process. It defines, illustrates, and teaches helping skills and provides manageable models for understanding them. The book also looks at the underlying process and its associated set of core skills. A range of helping situations are addressed so that social workers can find useful models to incorporate into their own work. The core processes and skills are identified in the chapters on work with individuals and reappear in the discussions of group, family, and community work.

Journal of Character Education Marvin W. Berkowitz, Jonathan M. Tirrell, 2023-12-01 The Journal of Character Education is the leading source of cutting edge knowledge about character education research, theory, practice, and opinion. We define character education broadly to encompass all educational approaches designed to nurture students' knowledge, motivation, skills, and behavior concerning all four aspects of character: moral, performance, civic, and intellectual. The Journal publishes manuscripts that report research relevant to character education, conceptual articles, and book reviews that provide theoretical, historical, and philosophical perspectives on the field of character education as it is broadly defined above. The Journal is also interested in practical articles about implementation and specific programs, and informed opinion statements.

The SAGE Encyclopedia of Marriage, Family, and Couples Counseling Jon Carlson, Shannon B. Dermer, 2016-10-11 The SAGE Encyclopedia of Marriage, Family, and Couples Counseling is a new all-encompassing landmark work for researchers seeking to broaden their knowledge of this vast and diffuse field. Marriage and family counseling programs are established at institutions worldwide, yet there is no current work focused specifically on family therapy. While other works have discussed various methodologies, cases, niche aspects of the field, and some broader views of counseling in general, this authoritative Encyclopedia provides readers with a fully comprehensive and accessible reference to aid in understanding the full scope and diversity of theories, approaches, and techniques and how they address various life events within the unique dynamics of families, couples, and related interpersonal relationships. Key topics include Assessment, Communication, Coping, Diversity, Interventions, and Techniques, Life Events, Transitions, Sexuality, Work/Life Issues, and more. Key features include More than 500 signed articles written by key figures in the field, spanning four comprehensive volumes Front matter includes a Reader s Guide that groups related entries thematically Back matter includes a history of the development of the field a Resource Guide to key associations websites and journals a selected Bibliography of classic publications and a detailed Index All entries conclude with Further Readings and Cross References to related entries to aid the reader in their research journey Nurses and Family Health Promotion Perri J.
