Langellier,2020-10-15 On a hot summer s day in Montana a daring frontier cavalry officer Powhatan Henry Clarke died at the height of his promising career A member of the U S Military Academy s Class of 1884 Clarke graduated dead last and while short on academic application he was long on charm and bravado Clarke obtained a commission with the black troops of the Tenth Cavalry earning his spurs with these Buffalo Soldiers He evolved into a fearless field commander at the troop level gaining glory and first hand knowledge of what it took to campaign in the West During his brief action packed career Clarke saved a black trooper s life while under Apache fire and was awarded the Medal of Honor A chance meeting brought Clarke together with artist Frederic Remington who brought national attention to Clarke when he illustrated the exploit for an 1886 Harper s Weekly The officer and artist became friends and Clarke served as a model and consultant for future artwork by Remington Remington s many depictions of Clarke added greatly to the cavalryman s luster In turn the artist gained fame and fortune in part from drawing on Clarke as his muse The story of these two unlikely comrades tells much about the final stages of the Wild West and the United States emergence on the international scene Along the way Geronimo The Apache Kid Texas John Slaughter and others played their roles in Clarke s brief but compelling drama Encyclopedia of Frontier Biography: G-O Dan L. Zulu Rebellion are analyzed in fascinating detail An added attraction for readers is that this long awaited history is written not just by a leading authority but thanks to the coauthor s contribution from the Zulu perspective using much completely fresh material Skyhorse Publishing as well as our Arcade imprint are proud to publish a broad range of books for readers interested in history books about World War II the Third Reich Hitler and his henchmen the JFK assassination conspiracies the American Civil War the American Revolution gladiators Vikings ancient Rome medieval times the old West and much more While not every title we publish becomes a New York Times bestseller or a national bestseller we are committed to books on subjects that are sometimes overlooked and to authors whose work might not otherwise find a home Hells Canyon-Snake National River United States.
