Mason,2015-06-23 Private First Class R was an excellent soldier so it was unlike him to be late When he came in a few minutes later I could see by the grim look on his face that something was terribly wrong. He immediately began to cry and tell me that his wife had miscarried the child they had so badly wanted. I had never seen anyone cry as much as he did that morning and one box of tissues simply was not enough. After a while the front of his uniform was soaked from his many tears and I felt horrible seeing him suffer. It was one of those times when I would have moved Heaven and Earth if I could have but I could not. It humbled me because I wanted to order someone to do something to fix the problem but this time it would not be that simple. I had always taken pride in looking out for the welfare of the soldiers in my charge but this time was different. I knew I was not a miracle worker but I felt I had let him down because as much as I wanted to, I did not have the power to bring back his baby. It was the worst day of my Army career because a good soldier who looked up to me for wisdom and guidance was in peril and there was nothing I could do. I felt like a weakened Superman hopelessly dragging his feet through a field of Kryptonite because there I was with all my rank and power that the Army had entrusted in me but I was useless to him.

Chasing SAM Colonel Roy M. Stanley II, 2016-08-30 This book is autobiographical about my tour as Night Shift chief Air Defense Analysis 2nd Air Division Seventh Air Force Saigon Republic of Vietnam from August 1965 to August 1966. With several Special Security Clearances I was privy to events many others in the HQ weren't. The first US aircraft lost to a surface to air missile SAM was literally days before I arrived so I was in on the ground floor of identifying SA-2 locations and capabilities plus evolving tactics for our pilots to beat missiles in the air. I'll tell you about that and also explain enemy defense weapons and capabilities as well as our Intelligence collection and analysis systems. I was the morning Air Defense briefer so I saw the generals up close and personal every day and heard their reactions to events like lost aircraft which I also briefed resulting in many interesting anecdotes. As far as I know there is no other book that looks at the Out Country War from the vantage point of a headquarters. First In, Last Out John D Howard, 2023-06-14 A Vietnam veteran recounts his experience through two tours of duty early in the conflict and then in its final stages. Fresh out of West Point John Howard arrived for his first tour in Vietnam in 1965 the first full year of escalation when US troop levels increased dramatically from 23,000 to 184,000. When Howard returned for a second tour in 1972 troop strength stood at 24,000 and would dwindle to a mere fifty the following year. He thus participated in the very early and very late stages of American military involvement in the Vietnam War. Howard's two tours, the first as a platoon commander and member of an elite counterinsurgency force and the second as a senior advisor to the South Vietnamese, provide a fascinating lens through which to view not only one soldier's experience in Vietnam but also the country's.

Land of the Morning Calm Harry Bryce, 2007-11 Instability, danger and intrigue follow a US Army lieutenant and his wife in 1968 Korea as they try to safeguard their relationship and their lives.
