Wirth, 2011-01-13 Recognizing the importance of the Kyoto School its influence on philosophy politics religion Asian studies this text seeks to initiate a conversation between Japanese Western philosophers

Buddha Mind in Contemporary Art Jacquelynn Baas, Mary Jane Jacob, 2004 Eminently readable and extremely meaningful The contributors tackle essential questions about the relationship of art and life The book is also very timely offering a way to approach Buddhism through unexpected channels Lynn Gumpert Director Grey Art Gallery New York University

Gods in America Charles L. Cohen, Ronald L. Numbers, 2013-07-29 Religious pluralism has characterized America almost from its seventeenth century inception but the past half century or so has witnessed wholesale changes in the religious landscape including a proliferation of new spiritualities the emergence of widespread adherence to Asian traditions and an evangelical Christian resurgence These recent phenomena important in themselves as indices of cultural change are also both causes and contributions to one of the most remarked upon and seemingly anomalous characteristics of the modern United States its widespread religiosity Compared to its role in the world s other leading powers religion in the United States is deeply woven into the fabric of civil and cultural life At the same time religion has from the 1600s on never meant a single denominational or confessional tradition and the variety of American religious experience has only become more diverse over the past fifty years Gods in America brings together leading scholars from a variety of disciplines to explain the historical roots of these phenomena and assess their impact on modern American society Fateful Ties Gordon H. Chang,2015-04-13 Americans look to China with fascination and fear unsure whether it is friend or foe but certain it will play a crucial role in their future This is nothing new Gordon Chang says Fateful Ties draws on literature art biography popular culture and politics to trace America s long and varied preoccupation with China The Making of Buddhist Modernism David L. McMahan,2008-11-14

A great deal of Buddhist literature and scholarly writing about Buddhism of the past 150 years reflects and indeed constructs a historically unique modern Buddhism even while purporting to represent ancient tradition timeless teaching or the essentials of Buddhism This literature Asian as well as Western weaves together the strands of different traditions to create a novel hybrid that brings Buddhism into alignment with many of the ideologies and sensibilities of the post Enlightenment West In this book David McMahan charts the development of this Buddhist modernism McMahan examines and analyzes a wide range of popular and scholarly writings produced by Buddhists around the globe He focuses on ideological and imaginative encounters between Buddhism and modernity for example in the realms of science mythology literature art psychology and religious pluralism He shows how certain themes cut across cultural and geographical contexts and how this form of Buddhism has been created by multiple agents in a variety of times and places His position is critical but empathetic while he presents Buddhist modernism as a construction of numerous parties with varying interests he does not reduce it to a mistake a misrepresentation or fabrication Rather he presents it as a complex historical process constituted by a variety of responses sometimes trivial often profound to some of the most important concerns of the modern era

"Patricia Johanson and the Re-Invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010 " Xin Wu,2017-07-05 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 more years career of Patricia Johanson an important artist in the second half of the twentieth century Examining the artist s search for an art of the real as a member of the post World War II New York art world and how such pursuit has led her from painting and sculpture to public garden and environmental art Xin Wu argues for the significance of the process of art creation challenging the centrality of art objects This book is an insightful study to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist It therefore converses with art historians and critics alike as well as advanced readers of twentieth century art Following Johanson s artistic development from its formation in the 1960s American art scene to the very present day across the fields of art architecture garden civil engineering and environmental aesthetics it investigates the process of creation in a transdisciplinary perspective and reveals a view of art as a domain of exploration of key issues for the contemporary world The artist s concept of nature is highlighted and particular impacts of Chinese aesthetics and thought unveiled Based on extensive analysis of unpublished private archives Xin Wu offers us the first ever comprehensive scholarly interpretation of Patricia Johanson s oeuvre including drawings paintings sculptures installations garden proposals and built and unbuilt projects in the United States Brazil Kenya and Korea Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas,2019-11-19 A groundbreaking reading of Duchamp s work as informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices identifying creative energy with the erotic impulse Considered by many to be the most important artist of the twentieth century the object of intensive critical scrutiny and extensive theorizing Marcel Duchamp remains an enigma He may be the most intellectual artist of all time and yet toward the end of his life he said If you wish my art would be that of living each second each breath is a work which is inscribed nowhere which is neither visual or cerebral In Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life Jacquelynn Baas offers a groundbreaking new reading of Duchamp arguing in particular that his work may have been informed by Asian esoterism energetic spiritual practices that identify creative energy with the erotic impulse Duchamp drew on a wide range of sources for his art from science and mathematics to alchemy Largely overlooked until now have been Asian spiritual practices including Indo Tibetan tantra Baas presents evidence that Duchamp s version of artistic realization was grounded in a western interpretation of Asian mind training and body energetics designed to transform erotic energy into mental and spiritual liberation She offers close readings of many Duchamp works beginning and ending with his final work the mysterious shockingly explicit tant donn s 1 la chute d eau 2 le gaz d clairage Given 1 The Waterfall 2 The Illuminating Gas Generously illustrated with many images in color Marcel Duchamp and the Art of Life speculates that Duchamp viewed art making as part of an esoteric continuum grounded in Eros It asks us to unlearn what we think we know about both art and life in order to be open to experience The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown,2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts Intercultural Communication with China Fred Dervin,Regis Machart,2017-05-15 A major objective of this book is to identify the key determinants of the East and the West in the field of intercultural communication It examines but also counter attacks essentialist and culturalist analyses of intercultural communication between China and the rest of the world Offering a cross country examination and comparison of drought awareness and experience this book shows two fields of research which are complementary but rarely found side by side i e the Arts and Intercultural Encounters serve as illustrations for theoretical and methodological discussions about intercultural communication between China and the West Scholarly and media discourses will find this work thought provoking instructive and informative

The Assimilation of Yogic Religions through Pop Culture Paul G. Hackett, 2017-10-23 The image of the meditating yogi has become a near universal symbol for transcendent perfection used to market everything from perfume and jewelry to luxury resorts and sports cars and popular culture has readily absorbed it along similar lines Yet the religious traditions grounding such images are often readily abandoned or caricatured beyond recognition or so it would seem The essays contained in The Assimilation of Yogic Religions through Pop Culture explore the references to yogis and their native cultures of India Tibet and China as they are found in the stories of many famous icons of popular culture from Batman Spider Man and Doctor Strange to Star Trek Doctor Who Twin Peaks and others In doing so the authors challenge the reader to look deeper into the seemingly superficial appropriation of the image of the yogi and Asian religious themes found in all manner of comic books novels television movies and theater and to carefully examine how they are being represented and what exactly is being said

The Simple Truth Simon Morley, 2020-12-15 The monochrome a single color work of art is highly ambiguous For some it epitomizes purity and is art reduced to its essence For others it is just a stunt the proverbial emperor's new clothes Why are monochrome works both so admired and such an easy target of scorn Why does a monochrome look so simple and yet is so challenging to comprehend And what is it that drives artists to create such works In this illuminating book Simon Morley unpacks the meanings of the monochrome as it has developed internationally over the twentieth century to today In doing so he also explores how artists have understood what they make how critics variously interpret it and how art is encountered by viewers

Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art, 1600-2005 Patricia J. Graham, 2007-09-30 Faith and Power in Japanese Buddhist Art explores the transformation of Buddhism from the premodern to the contemporary era in Japan and the central role its visual culture has played in this transformation Although Buddhism is generally regarded as peripheral to modern Japanese society this book demonstrates otherwise Its chapters elucidate the thread of change over time in the practice of Buddhism as revealed in temple worship halls and other sites of devotion and in imagery representing the religion's most popular deities and religious practices It also introduces the work of modern and contemporary artists who are not generally associated with institutional Buddhism and its canonical visual requirements but whose faith inspires their art The author makes a persuasive argument that the neglect of these materials by scholars results from erroneous presumptions about the aesthetic superiority of early Japanese Buddhist artifacts and an asserted decline in the institutional power of the religion after the sixteenth century She demonstrates that recent works constitute a significant contribution to the history of Japanese art and architecture providing evidence of Buddhism's compelling presence at all levels of Japanese society and its evolution in response to the needs of new generations of supporters

The Palgrave Dictionary of Transnational History A. Iriye, P. Saunier, 2016-04-30 Written and edited by many of the world's foremost scholars of transnational history this Dictionary challenges readers to look at the contemporary world in a new light Contains over 400 entries on transnational subjects such as food migration and religion as well as traditional topics such as nationalism and war

Patricia Johanson and the Re-invention of Public Environmental Art, 1958-2010 Xin Wu, 2013 Impeccably researched and richly detailed this book addresses the issue of translation between visual arts and landscape design in the 50 year career of American painter and environmental artist Patricia Johanson Exploring the artist's search for an art of the real as a member of the postwar New York art world it demonstrates that visual translation cannot be understood solely through the works of art instead attention must be paid to the process of creation This book is an insightful attempt to confront a crucial question in the history of art through the work of a contemporary artist Dance and the Body in Western Theatre Sabine

Sörgel, 2015-09-10 While the body appears in almost all cultural discourses it is nowhere as visible as in dance This book captures the resurgence of the dancing body in the second half of the twentieth century by introducing students to the key phenomenological kinaesthetic and psychological concepts relevant to both theatre and dance studies Baroque

Tendencies in Contemporary Art Kelly A. Wacker, 2021-02-03 Baroque Tendencies in Contemporary Art is a collection of essays by an international cadre of scholars addressing current trends within the field of contemporary art and how artists and architects reflect upon past traditions and fold them into the present Often referred to as the Neo Baroque scholarship on this topic first emerged in the 1980s with the publication of several notable studies in France but not translated into English until the 1990s in addition a number of recent exhibitions have focused on contemporary responses to the Baroque The Baroque and the Neo Baroque are frequently defined as having a propensity for instability seriality reflexivity fluidity and spectacle This is perhaps partly why in the millennial period there is so much interest in the Baroque we are seeking ways to find parallels between the art of then and the art of our own diverse pluralistic culture This book provides context for how contemporary artists meet and deal with the Baroque both formally and conceptually Among others it provides discussions of the work of American artists John Currin Jeff Koons Frank Stella Lisa Yuskavage American architect Frank Gehry European artists Lucian Freud Jenny Saville Emilio Vedova Latin American artists Monica Castillo Raphael Cauduro Yishai Judisman and New Zealand artists Richard Reddaway and Joanna Langford God in the Gallery Daniel A. Siedell, 2008-10 An art historian develops a theological philosophical and historical framework within which to experience and interpret modern and contemporary art that is in dialogue with the Christian faith
