Paula Ruth Gilbert,2006-03-31 In the past twenty years Quebec women writers including Aline Chamberland Claire D Suzanne Jacob and H l ne Rioux have created female characters who are fascinated with bold sexual actions and language cruelty and violence at times culminating in infanticide and serial killing Paula Ruth Gilbert argues that these Quebec feminist writers are re framing gender Violence and the Female Imagination explores whether these imagined women are striking out at an external other or harming themselves through acts of self destruction and depression Gilbert examines the degree to which women are imitating men in the outward direction of their anger and hostility and suggests that such tough women may be mocking men in their macho exploits of sexuality and violence She illustrates the ways in which Quebec female authors are feminizing violence or re envisioning gender in North American culture Gilbert bridges methodological gaps and integrates history sociology literary theory feminist theory and other disciplinary approaches to provide a framework for the discussion of important ethical and aesthetic questions An Artistic Approach to New Testament Literature Sharon R. Chace,2008-02-02 An Artistic Approach to New Testament Literature is a first introductory textbook for late high school or college students and would serve well in a freshman experience course Historical criticism informs the background commentary Biblical texts are described according to the formal art elements of form line color and texture Other artistic terms such as perspective and focal point are used to characterize biblical passages Thought provoking questions and art projects are provided for exploration in the foreground or in the world in front of the text This book is a bridge between church and academy If church leaders or teachers have questions for the author they are invited to contact her through e mail at Shrnrchace aol com Northrop Frye's Canadian Literary Criticism and Its Influence Branko Gorjup,2009-01-01 Northrop Frye s Canadian Literary Criticism examines the impact of Frye s criticism on Canadian literary scholarship as well as the response of Frye s peers to his articulation of a Canadian criticism Lighting Up the Terrain David Kent,1987 Insightful and compelling this collection of appreciations and reminiscences by both Canadian and American poets addresses Margaret Avison as both a Christian poet and as an individual who has influenced her contemporaries Hoping to throw some light on the mystery of Margaret Avison and especially her achievement as a Christian writer this book celebrates Avison as both a person and a poet Hauerwas the Peacemaker? Nathan Scot Hosler,2020-04-14 War has been abolished in Christ is a strong claim by theologian Stanley Hauerwas Wars however continue to rage and historic numbers of people are displaced globally Despite critics assessments that Hauerwas contributes to Christians disengaging his work provides certain tools for the work of peacebuilding In this work Hauerwas s contribution to peacemaking as a part of his ecclesiology and broader theological ethical work will be assessed Hauerwas s peacemaking within his work stands within the context of ecclesiology and related themes of witness and Christology The possibilities of his work on peacemaking to extend to peacebuilding practice and foreign policy formation are explored and a critique is leveled regarding his engagement with racial justice Additionally certain practices of reading in theology and training in this language are extrapolated to engage the task of policy formation and analysis in contexts where religion is an active factor This study concludes that Hauerwas's theological ethics of peacemaking makes a valuable contribution but must be extended into specific practices

The CEA Critic, 1978      Reading Public Romanticism Paul Magnuson, 2014-07-14

Reading Public Romanticism is a significant new example of the linking of esthetics and historical criticism Here Paul Magnuson locates Romantic poetry within a public discourse that combines politics and esthetics nationalism and domesticity sexuality and morality law and legitimacy Building on his well regarded previous work Magnuson practices a methodology of close historical reading by identifying precise versions of poems reading their rhetoric of allusion and quotation in the contexts of their original publication and describing their public genres such as the letter He studies the author's public signature or motto the forms and significance of address used in poems and the resonances of poetic language and tropes in the public debates According to Magnuson reading locations means reading the writing that surrounds a poem the paratext or frame of the esthetic boundary In their particular locations in the public discourse romantic poems are illocutionary speech acts that take a stand on public issues and legitimate their authors both as public characters and as writers He traces the public significance of canonical poems commonly considered as lyrics with little explicit social or political commentary including Wordsworth's Immortality Ode Coleridge's This Lime Tree Bower My Prison Frost at Midnight and The Ancient Mariner and Keats's On a Grecian Urn He also positions Byron's Dedication to Don Juan in the debates over Southey's laureateship and claims for poetic authority and legitimacy Reading Public Romanticism is a thoughtful and revealing work Originally published in 1998 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books
