the Letters of Paul Hendrikus Boers,2012-02-14 This study addresses the centrality of Christ in Paul's thought recognizing at the same time that he does not express the meaning of Christ as an existing teaching Christ as a person not a teaching determines Paul's thinking for himself and in his reasoning with his readers Christ comes to expression in Paul as the explication of the fundamental reality for himself and for his readers He develops his thoughts about Christ in each case anew as expressions of the Lord who determines his life and the lives of his readers In his reasoning with his readers he expects them to become aware of Christ as the one who determines them in their new lives as believers The Shadow of God Michael Rosen,2022-06-30 Michael Rosen shows how the redemptive hope of religion became the redemptive hope of historical progress This was the heart of German Idealism purpose lay not in God's judgment but in worldly projects freedom required not being subject to arbitrary authority human or divine Yet purpose and freedom never shed their theistic structure
