The Sky Is Red Giuseppe Bertolotti, 1971 When I first read The Sky Is Red it reminded me vividly of my own impressions of post war Italy when I arrived in Naples as a boy from New York in late 1945 I remember the ugly bombed out city the widespread hunger misery and despair I witnessed political opportunism widespread fraud and violent crime Even as a boy I understood the heartrending spectacle of otherwise honorable people forced to debase themselves in questionable and sordid activities in order to survive I remember the gangs of urchins and adolescents roaming the streets and the conversations of adults of various political stripes who were trying to figure out the best way to restore Italy as a functioning country Giuseppe Bertolotti published his novel in Italy in 1947 It depicts in graphic terms the country's pervasive physical psychological and moral devastation through the experiences of a group of adolescents struggling to grow up amid the ruins of a brutal war Bertolotti is careful not to identify the venue of his story which could easily be any of the many towns and cities in Italy that had been ravaged His narrative thus becomes a universal cry of despair and disillusion that quickly struck a responsive chord among the Italian reading public in the wake of World War II Bertolotti wrote his book in the United States in the final years of the war when he was a prisoner of war in Texas Before his capture Bertolotti had served for several years in the Italian Army and was certainly familiar with all the ugliness of war I suspect that his manuscript reflects observations both during that time and when he got back home The Sky Is Red focuses more on the lingering effects of war than on war's direct violence It is a powerful literary achievement and became a paradigm classic of post war Italian literature Christopher David Costanzo Henniker N H November 24 2019 My Rival, The Sky Margo Kurtz, 2014-04-29 In a compelling memoir as timely and important today as it was when it was first published 70 years ago a spirited young girl takes to the skies with the love of her life and returns to earth a worldly wise and self determined woman Margo Kurtz is a poetically inclined college student from a salt of the earth Midwestern family Frankie Kurtz is a wiry Olympic high diver who left home at ten and raised himself on the streets From its beginning their love story is a soaring adventure He teaches her to fly she teaches him to trust She becomes a wife he becomes a soldier As Japanese bombs rain down on Frank's position at Clark Air Force Base in the Philippines in the terrifying days that follow the attack on Pearl Harbor from her base in the American prairie Margo gathers enough strength of will to see them both through these dark days Blackout curtains fall and wartime censors stand between her and any peace she might find in hearing Frankie's voice But Margo sets a course for her own fight armed with imagination courage understanding and a quiet insistence that waiting must be turned into living lest separation become an abyss too deep to cross By turns hopeful and heart warming poignant and funny My Rival the Sky is a riveting personal history of Colonel Frank Kurtz the most decorated Army Air Corps pilot of World War II It is also a chronicle of The Swoose an unstoppable Flying Fortress said to be part swan part goose It is the story of Margo Kurtz the force of nature who kept them both from falling It is a story about the life we create when the world takes away the life we hope for a powerful message for every military family every spouse and parent held hostage by their love for brave men and women gone to war It speaks for all who from the home front wage those inner battles through which a peacetime home is once again made whole In the late 1940s the Smithsonian Institution accepted possession of The Swoose where it remained in storage until the National Museum of the United States Air Force acquired it in 2008 After a complete restoration The Swoose will be placed on display at the museum Wrinkles in Practical Navigation ... Squire Thornton Stratford Lecky, 1890

Mirrors In The Sky Graham Zimmatore, 2007 Race for the Sky Dan Gutman, 2003-11 To celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Wright brothers historic flight Gutman delivers the fictional diary of a boy who helps the Wrights build their flying machine giving a new perspective to the historical events Illustrations
