The Writing of Gods Racheli Shalomi-Hen, 2006 This book outlines the development of the divine classifiers in the Egyptian script system from the beginning of writing to the end of the Old Kingdom The first part discusses the falcon on the standard and the ways in which ancient Egyptian writing system expressed the idea of divine kingship The seated bearded man is the focus of the second part in which the author follows the sign from its first appearance as a classifier of foreign peoples to its identification with the god Osiris The third part is dedicated to divine markers and the structure of the divine category in the Pyramid Texts This part surveys the special orthographic constraints of the Pyramid Texts as well as the evolution of the female divine classifiers Although the book concentrates on orthographic processes it takes into account the broader religious context of the Old Kingdom Hence the relations between the sun god Re and the king as well as the special role of the Great God in the private inscriptions and the appearance of Osiris as a foreigner are also discussed Ritual Landscape and Performance Christina Geisen, 2019-11-15 Ritual Landscape and Performance contains the peer reviewed Egyptological contributions from the homonymous conference held at the Department of Near and Middle Eastern Civilizations of Yale University on September 23-24, 2016 The various articles discuss the use of ritual landscape from the Old to the New Kingdom of Ancient Egypt by focusing on landscape archaeology of specific sites such as Saqqara, el Bersheh, Abydos, Thebes as well as Aniba in Nubia Further contributions elucidate the interaction of desert and the Nile Valley through rock art, the depictions of watery environments in the delta and their association to rituals as well as the habitation of landscapes using the example of southern Middle Egypt Through a Glass Darkly Kasia Szpakowska, 2006-12-31 Magic, dreams and prophecy played important roles in ancient Egypt as in other Mediterranean societies Scholars are now approaching the whole topic of divination in antiquity with greatly enhanced attention In this volume eminent international specialists come together to explore the practice, logic and psychology of divination among ancient Egyptians Tutankhamun and Carter Rogerio Sousa, Gabriele Pieke, Tine Bagh, 2024-08-15 First scholarly multi-disciplinary re-assessment of Howard Carter's discovery and excavation of Tutankhamun's tomb and the impact of the find on our understanding of the material culture of Ancient Egypt The discovery of the tomb of Tutankhamun in 1922 stands out as one of the most important finds of modern archaeology, revealing an enormous wealth of objects encapsulating techniques, vestiges of uses and re-uses of materials as well as unrivalled clues regarding the complex set of beliefs associated with the pharaonic funerary material culture Once cleared from the tomb, these objects have captivated the world with their irresistible charm and beauty, ending up playing a role in contemporary popular culture However, it seems that such magnetism rather hindered than facilitated the scholarly study of the find One hundred years after the discovery of this magnificent tomb, most of its objects remain insufficiently studied to this day This volume aims to show how it remains challenging to study Tutankhamun's objects, gathering a collection of studies authored by leading scholars on conservation, materials, funerary beliefs as well as the reception of motifs and the impact of the discovery Through these studies, it becomes clear how ancient objects can help us reconstruct the complex fabric of the ancient Egyptian society and how they keep interacting with modern audiences Architecture, Power, and Religion David Warburton, 2012 This book explores the fundamental question of the origins and nature of monumental religious architecture The principal argument is that the origins of monumental religious architecture were basically aspatial and that the gradual incorporation of functional space into religious architecture can be related to transformations in religious thought Although the discussion ranges across the Old World, the argument centers on Egypt and the Egyptian female king Hatshepsut she set the tone for the New Kingdom by tying her legitimacy to Amun and the monuments she built for him This leads into the issues of power and political legitimacy and their relevance to myths The basic contention is that the political ideologies of the Near Eastern Bronze Age contributed fundamentally to what later became the phenomenon we know as religion and that the history of the architecture must be understood in order to understand both religion and architectural space Series Articles on Archaeology Beitrage zur Archäologie Vol 7 Outward Appearance versus Inward Significance Aleksandra Hallmann, 2025-06-16 Clothes are often considered mundane yet they play a crucial role in people's lives beyond mere bodily protection The meaning of a piece of clothing changes the moment it is worn as it becomes associated with its wearer Because attire can demonstrate affiliation with a particular religious ethnic or political group it serves as an important means of constructing self identity and plays a vital role in social acculturation and assimilation To understand what clothing reveals about the ethnicity beliefs social rank profession gender or age of the wearer one must examine its sociocultural context and the nonverbal language it conveys This volume takes a multidisciplinary and comparative approach to dress studies in the ancient world Spanning a wide geographic spectrum from the Near East and North Africa to the Mediterranean world and the Americas it explores the cultural social and political significance of attire and engages the reader in a debate about the cross culturally developed role of dress in construing and projecting various identities Essays by experts from a range of disciplines including art history anthropology archaeology classics Near Eastern studies and conservation approach the subject from different perspectives apply varied methodologies and draw on a diverse array of primary sources including artifacts iconography and texts to offer a nuanced understanding of the clothed self in ancient societies This book will be of interest not only to experts in dress studies but to everyone interested in the cultural anthropology of dress and fashion Dawn of Egyptian Art Diana Craig Patch, Marianne Eaton-Krauss, Susan J. Welche Bedeutung hat Bildung in der Alltagskultur unterschiedlicher Milieus? Was bedeutet es in einer von Schriftsprache geprägten Kultur zu leben und was bedeutet es an dieser Kultur nur begrenzt teilhaben zu können? Wie wird Analphabetismus in der Kunst thematisiert? Welche Möglichkeiten bieten künstlerische Zugänge beim Schriftspracherwerb? In welchem Verhältnis stehen Kunst und Bildung zueinander? Ist es überhaupt legitim Kunst mit Aufgaben und Funktionen zu versehen? Und andererseits: Wie sehr brauchen Kunst und Bildung einander? Wie hängt kulturelle Teilhabe von Lese- und Schreibkenntnissen ab? Welche Horizonte öffnet die Kunst? Welche Widerstände erzeugt sie? Wie kann man in Lese- und Schreibkursen künstlerisch tätig sein? Ist Kulturelle Bildung ein integraler Bestandteil von Grundbildung? Dies sind einige der Fragen, mit denen sich die Dokumentation der 7. deutschen Fachtagung Alphabetisierung im Rahmen der UN-Weltalphabetisierungsdekade befasst.
