Pathways to High-Tech Valleys and Research Triangles Willem Hulsink, J. J. M. Dons, 2008-05-23 About the book The contents of most of the chapters included in this volume were originally presented and discussed during the academic workshop High tech Valleys and Research Triangles in the East of the Netherlands and elsewhere held on 30 November and 1 December 2005 at the Wageningen International Congress Centre WICC in the Netherlands At that time we had an informal agreement with Rob Bogers series editor of the Wageningen UR Frontis book series that if the quality and quantity of the talks and papers at the seminar would be sufficient and if there was willingness among the potential authors an edited book volume based upon the results of the workshop would be a possibility After the workshop when we had a critical mass of ten chapters and a dedicated group of committed authors the book project was given the green light As editors we realized that there were still a couple of topics and themes missing and when we had found colleagues for these four additional chapters that needed to be written our Frontis book was on the roll Although most of the time it was great fun the whole process of writing reviewing rewriting editing and proofreading took a lot of time much more time than we originally had foreseen We would like to thank all authors of the fourteen chapters of this book for their excellent contributions

Slow Food Nation Carlo Petrini, 2013-10-08 An impassioned and hopeful manifesto on the need for equitable sustainable and delicious food with systematic solutions for addressing the national food crisis Petrini builds a case against fast food and offers ways to bring back the balance between nature and our table Bon Appetit By now most of us are aware of the threats looming in the food world The best selling Fast Food Nation and other recent books have alerted us to such dangers as genetically modified organisms food borne diseases and industrial farming Now it is time for answers and Slow Food Nation steps up to the challenge Here the charismatic leader of the Slow Food movement Carlo Petrini outlines many different routes by which we may take back control of our food The three central principles of the Slow Food plan are these food must be sustainably produced in ways that are sensitive to the environment those who produce the food must be fairly treated and the food must be healthful and delicious In his travels around the world as ambassador for Slow Food Petrini has witnessed firsthand the many ways that native peoples are feeding themselves without making use of the harmful methods of the industrial complex He relates the wisdom to be gleaned from local cultures in such varied places as Mongolia Chiapas Sri Lanka and Puglia Amidst our crisis it is critical that Americans look for insight from other cultures around the world and begin to build a new and better way of eating in our communities here

Post-structuralist Geography Jonathan Murdoch, 2006 An introduction to post structuralist theory that critically assesses how the concept can be used to study space and place this text communicates a new agenda for the study of human geography

Food Cultures of Germany Ursula Heinzelmann, 2025-09-04 There s far more to German food than sausages and beer Discover the history and culture of Germany through its rich culinary traditions Part of the Global Kitchen series this book takes readers on a food tour of Germany covering everything from daily staples to holiday specialties In addition to discovering Germany s long culinary history readers will learn about recent trends foreign influences and contemporary food and dietary concerns Chapters are organized thematically making it easy to focus in on particular courses or types of dishes These include influential ingredients appetizers main dishes desserts and street food among others The main text is supplemented by sidebars that offer interesting bite sized facts a chronology of important dates in German culinary history and a glossary of key food and dining related terms The New York Times Magazine ,2003 Anthropologica ,2004 Slow Food Carlo Petrini,2003 Today with a magazine Web site and over 75 000 followers organized into local convivia or chapters Slow Food is poised to revolutionize the way Americans shop for their groceries prepare and consume their meals and think about food Food & Freedom Carlo Petrini,2015-09-01 Inspiring the global fight to revolutionize the way food is grown distributed and eaten In the almost thirty years since Carlo Petrini began the Slow Food organization he has been constantly engaged in the fight for food justice Beginning first in his native Italy and then expanding all over the world the movement has created a powerful force for change The essential argument of this book is that food is an avenue towards freedom This uplifting and humanistic message is straightforward if people can feed themselves they can be free In other words if people can regain control over access to their food how it is produced by whom and how it is distributed then that can lead to a greater empowerment in all channels of life Whether in the Amazon jungle talking with tribal elders or on rice paddies in rural Indonesia the author engages the reader through the excitement of his journeys and the passion of his mission Here Petrini reports upon some of the success stories that he has observed firsthand From Chiapas to Puglia Morocco to North Carolina he has witnessed the many ways different peoples have dealt with food problems This book allows us to learn from these case studies and lays out models for the future The Carnivore's Manifesto Patrick Martins,2014-06-10 One of The Atlantic s Best Food Books of 2014 fifty ways to be an enlightened carnivore while taking better care of our planet and ourselves from the founder of Slow Food USA We have evolved as meat eaters proclaims Patrick Martins and it s futile to deny it But given the destructive forces of the fast food industry and factory farming we need to make smart informed choices about the food we eat and where it comes from In 50 short chapters Martins cuts through organize zealotry and the misleading jargon of food labeling to outline realistic steps everyone can take to be part of the sustainable food movement With wit and insight and no small amount of provocation The Carnivore s Manifesto is both a revolutionary call to arms and a rollicking good read that will inspire engage and challenge anyone interested in the way we eat today Lifestyle Brands S. Saviolo,A. Marazza,2012-12-05 What do brands like Apple Diesel Abercrombie Fitch and Virgin have in common and what differentiates them from other brands These brands are able to maintain a relationship with their clients that goes beyond brand loyalty This gives a complete analysis of Lifestyle Brands that inspire guide and motivate beyond product benefits alone Microfoundations of Institutions Patrick Haack,Jost Sievecke,Lauri Wessel,2019-11-25 The notion of microfoundations has received growing interest in neo institutional theory along with an increasing interest in microfoundational research in disciplines such as strategic management and organizational economics Hidden Kitchens Nikki Silva,Davia Nelson,2005-10-21 A volume based on the popular NPR radio series explores how communities come together through food combining popular stories from the show with new interviews photographs and recipes from a wide array of atypical kitchens

The Political Language of Food Samuel Boerboom, 2015-05-06 The Political Language of Food addresses why the language used in the production marketing selling and consumption of food is inherently political Food language is rarely neutral and is often strategically vague which tends to serve the interests of powerful entities Boerboom and his contributors critique the language of food based messages and examine how such language including idioms tropes euphemisms invented terms etc serves to both mislead and obscure relationships between food and the resulting community health labor and environmental impacts Employing diverse methodologies the contributors examine on a micro level the textual and rhetorical elements of food based language itself The Political Language of Food is both timely and important and will appeal to scholars of media studies political communication and rhetoric

The Blackwell Cultural Economy Reader Ash Amin, Nigel Thrift, 2008-04-15 This Reader brings together the exciting and innovative work that has appeared in the last 10 years in the growing field of cultural economy Brings together exciting and innovative work from the last ten years in the emerging field of cultural economy Contains a substantial introduction by the editors on the main strands and history of the cultural economy approach Shows how the pursuit of prosperity always involves multiple and hybrid orderings that cannot be reduced to either the terms culture or economy Shows that thinking about cultural economy is both a substantive task and a valuable contribution to knowledge Material is organised around different links in the value chain

Geographies of Commodity Chains Alex Hughes, Suzanne Reimer, 2004-07-31 Broad geographical coverage including case studies from North American European and developing studies contexts Timely in view of increased popular and policy interest in the international origins of the commodities we buy and the often hidden environmental and social impacts of their production All chapters make an explicit and clear contribution to theorisations of the commodity chain Covers a wide range of products including food flowers home furnishings and clothing

The Taste of Art Silvia Bottinelli, Margherita d'Ayala Valva, 2017-06-01 The Taste of Art offers a sample of scholarly essays that examine the role of food in Western contemporary art practices The contributors are scholars from a range of disciplines including art history philosophy film studies and history As a whole the volume illustrates how artists engage with food as matter and process in order to explore alternative aesthetic strategies and indicate countercultural shifts in society The collection opens by exploring the theoretical intersections of art and food food art s historical root in Futurism and the ways in which food carries gendered meaning in popular film Subsequent sections analyze the ways in which artists challenge mainstream ideas through food in a variety of scenarios Beginning from a focus on the body and subjectivity the authors zoom out to look at the domestic sphere and finally the public sphere Here are essays that study a range of artists including among others Filippo Tommaso Marinetti Daniel Spoerri Dieter Roth Joseph Beuys Al Ruppersberg Alison Knowles Martha Rosler Robin Weltsch Vicki Hodgetts Paul McCarthy Luciano Fabro Carries Mae Weems Peter Fischli and David Weiss Janine Antoni El bieta Jab o ska Liza Lou Tom Marioni Rirkrit Tiravanija Michael Rakowitz and

Natalie Jeremijenko Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa John Elder, 2012-10-05 Set aside your Bella Tuscany and Year in Provinces for a different kind of travel book Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa puts a walking stick in your hand and Marsh's Man and Nature in your knapsack exploring how Italians have managed their natural and cultural heritage in ways that sustain both John Elder's poetic meditations on land and life demonstrate that only by searching beyond our familiar boundaries can we discover better ways of living back at home Marcus Hall author of Earth Repair: A Transatlantic History of Environmental Restoration This collaboration between George Perkins Marsh and John Elder between Vermont and Italy between maple and olive is one of the smartest soundest deepest books about the relationship between people and nature that I've ever read It will be a classic Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature Elder's impassioned pilgrimage shows us how to delight in messy wilderness to secure a curative habitation of the world and with Marsh to lend ecological nous to our gravest task knowing ourselves and respecting one another Let the maple seeds and olive stones of Elder's visionary harvest restore to us a reflective and redemptory future from the foreword by David Lowenthal The pivotal figure in Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa is the nineteenth century diplomat and writer George Perkins Marsh generally regarded as America's first environmentalist Like Elder Marsh was a Vermonter and his diplomatic career took him for some years to Italy where witnessing the ecological devastation wrought upon the landscape by runaway deforestation and the plundering of other natural resources he was moved to produce his famous manifesto Man and Nature Marsh drew parallels between the despoiled Italian environment and his home landscape of Vermont warning that the latter was vulnerable to ecological woes of a similar magnitude if not carefully maintained and protected In short his was a prescient voice for stewardship Elder follows in Marsh's footsteps along a trajectory running from Vermont to Italy and at length fetches up at the managed forest of Vallombrosa Punctuated throughout with learned and genial considerations of the poetry of Wordsworth Basho Dante and Frost Elder's narrative takes up issues of sustainability as practiced locally reports on family doings and returns finally as did Marsh's to Vermont where he measures traditional stewardship values against more aggressive conservation oriented measures such as the expansion of wilderness areas John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature: Explorations in Ecocriticism
