India Working Barbara Harriss-White, 2003 By drawing on her extensive fieldwork in India and on the adjacent theoretical literature Barbara Harriss White describes the working of the Indian economy through its most important social structures of accumulation Successive chapters explore a range of topics including labour capital the state gender religious plurality caste and space Despite the complexity of the subject the book is vivid and compelling The author's intimate knowledge of the country enables the reader to experience the Indian local scene and to engage with the precariousness of daily life Her conclusion challenges the prevailing notion that liberalisation releases the economy from political interference and leads to a postscript on the economic base for fascism in India This is an intelligent book first published in 2002 by a distinguished scholar for students of economics as well as for those studying the region Growth or Stagnation? Mats Lundahl, 2019-04-02 First published in 1999 the essays collected in the present volume derive from an interest in South Africa and its economy which goes back to the early 1970s and were written between 1994 and 1999 The intention is to follow how the debate on the South African economy has evolved since the fall of the apartheid regime Issues discussed include the South African economy after apartheid and whether the new South African economy is ultimately experienced growth or stagnation Regional and Local Economic Development in South Africa Etienne Louis Nel, 2019-07-23 First published in 1999 this volume responds to the recent application of Local Economic Development around the world and examines its impact in South Africa in the wake of the nation's recent political transition Etienne Louis Nel observes how the initiative is taking on a dual form of community led and authority led initiatives Nel explores the issue through areas including South Africa's space economy a case study of Stuttenheim and local economic development in East London Regional Development Planning and Management of Urbanization United Nations Centre for Human Settlements, 1997

Urban and Peri-urban Agriculture in Africa David Grossman, Leo M. van den Berg, Hyacinth I. Ajaegbu, 2019-05-20 Published in 1999 this work sets out to assess the potential of urban and peri urban agriculture for generating income and for improving food supply for the growing urban population in Africa It considers both full time small holder farmers and part timers who hold land under various tenurial conditions Since the book is a collection of papers based on field studies it contains a wide range of approaches methods of investigation and scientific findings Class Formation and Civil Society Patrick M. Boyle, 2018-10-26 First published in 1999 this study of the politics of education in Cameroon the Congo and Kenya presents arresting empirical evidence that urban elites exiting public sector educational systems they have dominated in favour of private school networks of their own creation Seeking to enhance their offspring s chances for survival and even domination in a world of scarce resources and limited opportunities for employment elites see private schools as tools to shape newly emerging civil societies in Africa in their own image From a theoretical perspective the fresh evidence presented here shows that schooling has once again become a major social force influencing the balance of state and society in modern Africa Re examining an older political tradition of class analysis and integrating it into more recent civil society perspectives the author shows that the abandonment of the unreliable education services of dysfunctional African states in favour of private schools has profound consequences for class articulation in societies dividing once again according to educational opportunities Doctors and the State Dorothy Mutizwa-Mangiza, 2018-08-13 Published in 1999 the main aim of this text is to examine the nature of professional control medical practice and the state of health services in a post colonial state and the medical profession in Zimbabwe since 1980 The text reviews the theories of professions and professional control and medical practice it concludes by examining the nature of the Zimbabwean state The chapter on methodology highlights some of the ethical dilemmas of carrying out research in developing countries The book then goes on to review health services and policies of both the colonial and post colonial governments in Zimbabwe Three chapters discuss the nature of medical practice and the constraints encountered by doctors in their work the terms and conditions of service under which doctors work and the nature of medical regulation of education licensing and discipline including issues such as malpractice and litigation Throughout the book comparisons are made with situations in other countries both developed and developing and the main conclusions of the book are that medical doctors in Zimbabwe have minimal administrative restrictions on the type of treatment which they can carry out but the unavailability and breakdown of essential equipment shortages of essential drugs and staff limit the doctors autonomy to carry out the treatment that they consider necessary

Cities in the World: 1500-2000: v. 3 Adrian Green, 2018-12-13 Papers presented at the Cities in the World conference held at Southampton University and organised through the Society for Post Medieval Archaeology challenged the commonly held perception that cities are about the present and the future not about the past All cities have an innate sense of the past and this volume encompassing as it does Circular Migration in Zimbabwe & Contemporary Sub-Saharan Africa Deborah Helen Potts, 2010 The World Bank insists that the urban share of sub Saharan Africa s population is rapidly increasing this study shows that in many countries this is no longer true as migration strategies have adapted in response to economic andpolitical change Circular migration whereby rural migrants do not remain permanently in town has particular significance in the academic literature on development and urbanization in Africa often having negative connotations in southern Africanist studies due to its links with an iniquitous migrant labour system Literature on other African regions often views circular migration more positively. This book reviews the current evidence about circular migration and urbanization in sub Saharan Africa The author challenges the dominant view that rural urban migration continues unabated and shows that circular migration has continued and has adapted with faster out migration in the face of decliningurban economic opportunities The empirical core of the book illustrates these trends through a detailed examination of the case of Zimbabwe based on the author's longstanding research on Harare The political and economic changes in Zimbabwe since the 1980s transformed Harare from one of the best African cities to live in over this period to one of the worst Harare citizens livelihoods exemplify in microcosm the central theme of the book the re invention of circulation and rural urban links in response to economic change Deborah Potts is a Senior Lecturer in the Geography Department of King's College London She works in the broad research field of urbanization and migration in sub Saharan Africa particularly southern Africa and has conducted research on these themes in Harare in Zimbabwe since 1985 Southern Africa South Africa Botswana Lesotho Swaziland Namibia and Zimbabwe University of Cape Town Press PB Rural-Urban Dynamics in the East African Mountains Racaud, Sylvain, Bart, Francois, 2017-07-19 This book is the result of a long term cooperation between French and East African scholars and universities under the aegis of the French Institute of Research in Africa IFRA Nairobi This book presents the main results of the research program Cooperation for University and Scientific Research CORUS Mountains and Small and Medium Cities in East Africa Environmental Management Flows of People and Resources funded by the French Ministry of Foreign Afairs and supported by IFRA Nairobi The specific subject is to rethink the development of the East African mountains in relation to the fast growing towns and cities that surround them Three East African mountains were chosen Mount Kenya Mount Elgon Ugandan side and Uporoto Mountains Tanzania Comparisons are included especially with Mount Kilimanjaro which has been studied in previous books and programs e g Kilimanjaro Mountain Memory and Modernity Mkuki na Nyota Dar es Salaam 2006 The authors are East African Tanzania Uganda Kenya and French scholars most of them geographers Made from 12 contributions this book focuses on a recent change in those mountains a growing urbanization which shapes new mountain systems This phenomenon which is actually a major upheaval is the focal point of this book giving rise to this question what are the links between Rural Urban evolution in such contexts What are the impacts on livelihoods and development This book covering social and environmental scientific issues relating to Rural Urban nature is Nutrition and Health in a Developing World Saskia de Pee, Douglas the first of its kind for African mountains Taren, Martin W. Bloem, 2017-02-13 This third edition reviews the epidemiology policies programs and outcome indicators that are used to determine improvements in nutrition and health that lead to development This greatly expanded third edition provides policy makers nutritionists students scientists and professionals with the most recent and up to date knowledge regarding major health and nutritional problems in developing countries Policies and programs that address the social and economic determinants of nutrition and health are now gaining in importance as methods to improve the status of the most vulnerable people in the world This volume provides the most current research and strategies so that policy makers program managers researchers and students have knowledge and resources that they can use to advance methods for improving the public s health and the development of nations The third edition of Nutrition and Health in Developing Countries takes on a new context where the word developing is now a verb and not an adjective Urban Growth and Land Degradation in Developing Cities Roy Maconachie, 2016-02-11 The peri urban interface in poor countries is frequently an area of great dynamism and a focus of competition for basic resources In Nigeria peri urban livelihood strategies have become an increasingly important survival mechanism in the context of rapid urban growth This book uses an innovative combination of methodologies from both the natural and social sciences to examine recent developments in and around the city of Kano in northern Nigeria and in doing so provides insights into the sustainability of these livelihood strategies Identifying some of the most significant forces that are currently shaping the process of peri urban change it argues that despite the adoption of creative and ingenious strategies by many farmers urban growth is having a considerable effect on the livelihood resilience of individuals households and communities The findings presented in this book have much wider relevance and are transferable to other burgeoning Third World cities where increased pressures on urban hinterlands have intensified contests amongst various actors made access to resources much more difficult and made traditional smallholder mechanisms of adaptation and resilience increasingly challenging Contemporary Issues in Tourism Development Richard W. Butler, Douglas G. Pearce, 2003-09-02 This work combines a study of contemporary issues in tourism development with a close examination of approaches to tourism research Looking beyond the much studied mass tourism industries leading international academics who are members of the International Academy for the Study of Tourism explore new issues raised by emerging tourist destinations such as Ghana Samoa Vietnam and India's Bhyundar Valley A fascinating work Contemporary Issues in Tourism Development discusses a wide range of topics such as reasons for development tourism development as a strategy for urban revitalization tourism's links to heritage conservation and regional development sustainability and the adverse impacts of development cultural considerations and community participation the importance of context for individual tourism projects

Rural-Urban Dynamics Jytte Agergaard, Niels Fold, Katherine Gough, 2009-09-11 It has increasingly been recognised that rural and urban areas are inextricably interlinked This book adopts a fresh approach to the issue of rural urban dynamics through a study of the changing nature of livelihoods mobility and markets in ten study sites across four countries of Africa and Asia Building on detailed fieldwork conducted in Ghana Tanzania Vietnam and Thailand the authors explore how settlements and livelihoods are being transformed as long term inhabitants and recent migrants embrace new economic activities many of which are linked to global markets The book is structured around the concept of frontier which is conceptualized as being a dynamic space where the forces of economic demographic and social change are brought to bear The study sites include agricultural frontiers coffee cocoa pineapples and fresh fruit handicraft and manufacturing frontiers and mining frontiers gold and diamonds In all of the cases global value chain dynamics have played a pivotal role in shaping local livelihoods Some settlements are developing into new urban centres whilst others are suffering from a boom and bust experience due to the unreliability of export markets The similarities and differences between the frontier settlements are drawn out by comparing frontiers of similar types and by highlighting the theoretical and policy implications of the findings from all the frontier types The originality of the book lies in its combination of conceptual clarity methodological coherence and empirical richness By combining detailed empirical findings with theoretical insight from debates on livelihoods global value chains mobility patterns settlement dynamics and rural urban relations the book sheds new light on these issues within an overall framework of development trajectories in Africa and Asia Given scholars and international agencies current interest in the spatial dimensions of economic development this contribution is particularly timely with its fresh geographical approach to development issues this book is a pertinent and authoritative read for anyone researching or learning in the field of development Town and Hinterland in Developing Countries Milan Titus, Jan Hinderink, 1998 This book deals with a series of case studies and comparative analyses on the structure and role of small and intermediate urban centres in different regional settings in developing countries The uniqueness of this study is that it makes comparisons between such diverse and wide flung areas as Central Mali and Swaziland in Sub Saharan Africa Northern Costa Rica and Northern Mexico in Latin America and Central Java and Yogyakarta in Indonesia The Department of Human Geography of Developing Countries of Utrecht University in the Netherlands has done more than a decade of systematic research into this topic The purpose of this book is to shed more light on the role of small towns in regional development under various socio spatial and political economical conditions and thereby contribute to the elucidation of often contradictory findings in literature Important focal points are the production and employment structures of the towns the development level of their rural hinterland economies the rural urban and interurban patterns of interaction and the role of government policy The Earthscan Reader in Rural-Urban Linkages Cecilia Tacoli, 2018-10-24 With accelerating urbanization and growing inter dependence of rural and urban dwellers on the markets and resources they each offer rural urban linkages have become a very important focus in recent years for research and policy relating to local and national economic development poverty reduction and governance The emergence of new livelihoods based on diversified income sources and mobility reflects profound social cultural and economic transformations and new forms of resource allocation and use This volume collects the key contributions in the field covering the conceptual background the key issues and the current debates locating different approaches in their wider intellectual and historical contexts It also includes important recent empirical work from all the relevant geographical regions that that will be the basis for future thinking Fifteen papers are clearly organized around the principal themes and accompanied by a valuable editorial introduction clearly setting out the issues the arguments and the evidence Suggestions for further reading and additional information sources are also included Published with IIED Small Business Management in Cross-Cultural Environments Per Lind, 2013-03-01 Products and services created by small and medium sized organizations account for the vast majority of economic activity across the globe These organizations will prove vitally important to the emerging and developing economies that will shape future decades Small Business Management in Cross Cultural Environments is one of very few books to take the cross cultural context as an opportunity to analyse and discuss the key concepts of small firm management in different parts of the world This textbook covers important topics such as the global economic development process entrepreneurship the role of government SME growth and collaborations in a global context By explaining how culture shapes and conditions the reality of small businesses and how organizational theories and models fail as management tools this book fills a significant gap Supplemented by a compendium of compelling case studies drawn from across the world and based upon 25 years of international research by the author Small Business Management in Cross Cultural Environments is a useful guide for students and practitioners of SME and International Management Single women, land and livelihood vulnerability in a communal area in Zimbabwe Gaynor Gamuchirai Makura-Paradza, 2023-09-04 There has been limited research on single women in customary tenure areas Single women s experiences have been marginalized in research that focuses on notions of property male headed domestic units and relies on normative research methods to investigate resource access in the communal farming areas of Zimbabwe This work focuses on the hearth hold as a domestic unit and uses innovative research methods to investigate how women outside the marriage institution negotiate access to land livelihood resources and make decisions to cope with livelihood vulnerability in customary tenure areas The research illustrates through a focus on pathways and rural urban connections how single women make decisions to secure livelihoods under fast changing conditions The findings that patriarchy is only one but not the only institution governing land access in customary tenure areas and that women have more room to negotiate land access in communal areas especially through entitlements family obligations and exploitation of multi layered tenure systems are some of the publication s contribution to knowledge on single women customary land tenure and livelihood vulnerability West African Studies Africa's Urbanisation Dynamics 2020 Africapolis, Mapping a New Urban Geography OECD, Sahel and West Africa Club, 2020-02-07 This report based on the Africapolis geo spatial database www africapolis org covering 7 600 urban agglomerations in 50 African countries provides detailed analyses of major African urbanisation dynamics placed within historical environmental and political contexts
