Smell Of Matches Poems:

The Smell of Matches John Stone, 1972 Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections in Print Marietta Chicorel, 1974 Recognitions Carol C. Donley, Martin Kohn, 2002 Carol Donley and Martin Kohn believe that physicians stand at a unique vantage point as observers of the human condition In this text contributors attempt to prove this assertion through their prose on topics as diverse as the clashes between forces of creation and destruction institutional economic survival conflicts between genders and generations balancing of primary care with specialization issues of race and class cultural displacement and the influence of William Carlos Williams on doctors and writing The stories and essays in the collection provide a deeper understanding of the complex emotions and feelings of the men and women who every day hold life in their hands Yellow Shoe Poets George Garrett, 1999-10-01 Since 1964 when Louisiana State University Press published its inaugural book of verse Miller Williams's A Circle of Stone its poetry list has grown exponentially 191 books by 93 poets into a program that inspires understandable pride in those associated with it Two collections have won the Pulitzer Prize The Flying Change 1986 by Henry Taylor and Alive Together 1996 by Lisel Mueller Another book by Mueller The Need to Hold Still 1980 won the National Book Award while several other LSU titles have been finalists for that distinction most recently The Fields of Praise 1997 by Marilyn Nelson and The Vigil 1993 by Margaret Gibson Dozens more have been recognized for their excellence through a host of various honors The Press publishes the winner of the annual Walt Whitman Award given by The Academy of American Poets for a first collection and in 1996 it launched the Southern Messenger series in collaboration with Dave Smith bringing two shining works into the fold each year The appearance of The Collected Poems of Robert Penn Warren in 1998 meant for the Press the realization of a long dearly held dream To mark this thirty five year old tradition as the century and millennium turn and to offer a sampling of its richness The Yellow Shoe Poets a retrospective anthology was compiled under the editorship of George Garrett a longtime colleague of the Press and the author of eight poetry volumes Say the LSU poets real fast with a southern drawl and you get the ridiculously wonderful moniker that poet Elizabeth Seydel Morgan's young friend innocently mistook for this noble band It's an image Brendan Galvin has appropriated to a perfect fit in his poem Yellow Shoe Poet written on behalf of his fellow yellow shoes across the years All 173 poems are taken from LSU Press books and were selected by the poets themselves if living Arranged alphabetically by author they consist of at least one poem from every poet published by the Press Goethe's admonition that one ought every day at least to read a good poem can find no better starting point than in The Yellow Shoe Poets Where Water Begins: New Poems and Prose John Stone, 1998 Poetry Harriet Monroe, 1988 Visiting Dr. Williams Sheila Coghill, Thom Tammara, 2011-06 Loved for his decidedly American voice for his painterly rendering of modern urban settings and for his ability to re imagine a living language shaped by the philosophy of no ideas but in things William Carlos Williams 1883 1963 left an indelible mark on modern poetry As each successive generation of poets discovers the new that lives within his work

his durability and expansiveness make him an influential poet for the twenty first century as well The one hundred and two poems by one hundred and two poets collected in Visiting Dr Williams demonstrate the range of his influence in ways that permanently echo and amplify the transcendent music of his language Contributors include Robert Creeley David Wojahn Maxine Kumin James Laughlin A R Ammons Wendell Berry Heid Erdrich Frank O Hara Lyn Lifshin Denise Levertov Wallace Stevens John Ashbery Allen Ginsberg and a host of others Mississippi Poets Catharine Savage Brosman,2020-08-25

Mississippi has produced outstanding writers in numbers far out of proportion to its population Their contributions to American literature including poetry rank as enormous Mississippi Poets A Literary Guide showcases forty seven poets associated with the state and assesses their work with the aim of appreciating it and its place in today s culture In Mississippi the importance of poetry can no longer be doubted It partakes as Faulkner wrote of the broad aim of all literature to uplift man s heart In Mississippi Poets author Catharine Savage Brosman introduces readers to the poets themselves stressing their versatility and diversity She describes their subject matter and forms their books and particularly representative or striking poems Of broad interest and easy to consult this book is both a source of information and a showcase It highlights the organic connection between poetry by Mississippians and the indigenous music genres of the region blues and jazz No other state has produced such abundant and impressive poetry connected to these essential American forms Brosman profiles and assesses poets from the twentieth and twenty first centuries Grounds for selection include connections between the poets and the state the excellence and abundance of their work its critical reception and both local and national standing Natives of Mississippi and others who have resided here draw equal consideration As C Liegh McInnis observed You do not have to be born in Mississippi to be a Mississippi writer If what happens in Mississippi has an immediate and definite effect on your work you are a Mississippi writer Music from Apartment 8 John Stone,2004-04-01

Poet and cardiologist John Stone is a man of many voices A gifted verse maker he exhibits in his writing the qualities of a compassionate physician a musician linguist naturalist and down to earth yet whimsical grandfather son husband and brother Selections from four previous books together with twenty two new works compose this exquisite volume a best of the best sampling from a beloved poet Making the Match Teri S. Lesesne,2003 Explains how teachers and librarians can steer students to the literature they love by focusing on three key areas knowing the readers knowing the books and knowing the strategies to motivate students to read Selected Poems Robert Herrick,2003 A great survivor among the Cavalier poets most of his poems were composed in a remote Devonshire parish Even so the body of his poetry is large and his religious vocation hardly shows in the almost innocent exuberance of his fine verse The Secret Life of Poems Tom Paulin,2011-04-07

The Secret Life of Poems is a primer which offers a poem or on occasion an excerpt succeeding with commentary in which rhythm form metre and sources are the order of the day not ethical commentary or descriptive paraphrase This brief engagement with forty seven poems is intended for students and readers of poetry and seeks to explain how poetry works by bringing into view the hidden order of specific poems The Smell of Matches John Stone,1982 Patchwork of Poems Moira Andrew,2000
