Snapshots From The Life Of An African American Women:

Snapshots from the Life of an African-American Woman Rebecca Evans Carroll,1997 Notable Black American Women Jessie Carney Smith,Shirelle Phelps,1992 Arranged alphabetically from Alice of Dunk s Ferry to Jean Childs Young this volume profiles 312 Black American women who have achieved national or international prominence African American Female Leadership in Major Motion Pictures Tracy L.F. Worley,2024-02-09 This book explores the factors contributing to the under representation of African American female directors in mainstream cinema leadership It also unmasks the potential strategies African American female film directors might pursue to reduce this inequity Author Tracy L F Worley draws on research around ethics to conclude that there are specific consequences of the male gaze on women in cinema leadership especially African American female directors of box office cinema Combining extensive analysis of ethics and ethical stance relative to the motion picture industry with perspectives from working African American female directors the text discusses the ethical considerations and historical inequities including the male gaze and uses those findings to define how the inequities can be opportunities The efficacy model for cinematic leadership is presented as a mechanism for viewing obstacles through the lenses of gender ethnicity and culture so they become drivers for African American women to achieve success Ideal for students of directing and filmmaking as well as aspiring professional filmmakers wishing to gain a better understanding of the industry as it stands today Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress,Library of Congress. McGuire, 2011-10-04 Here is the courageous groundbreaking story of Rosa Parks and Recy Taylor a story that reinterprets the history of America's civil rights movement in terms of the sexual violence committed against Black women by white men. An important step to finally facing the terrible legacies of race and gender in this country. The Washington Post. Rosa Parks was often described as a sweet and reticent elderly woman whose tired feet caused her to defy segregation on Montgomery's city buses and whose supposedly solitary spontaneous act sparked the 1955 bus boycott that gave birth to the civil rights movement. The truth of who Rosa Parks was and what really lay beneath the 1955 boycott is far different from anything previously written. In this groundbreaking and important book, Danielle McGuire writes about the rape in 1944 of a twenty-four-year-old mother and sharecropper, Recy Taylor, who strolled toward home after an evening of singing and praying at the Rock Hill Holiness Church in Abbeville, Alabama. Seven white men, armed with knives and shotguns, ordered the young woman into their green Chevrolet, raped her, and left her for dead. The president of the local NAACP branch office sent his best investigator and organizer, Rosa Parks, to Abbeville. In taking on this case, Parks launched a movement that exposed a ritualized history of sexual assault against Black women and added fire to the growing call for change.

The Trauma of Racism Beverly J. Stoute, Michael Slevin, 2022-10-31. The Trauma of Racism: Lessons from the Therapeutic Encounter is a pioneering reflection on the psychology of racism and its impact on us all. With the intimacy of personal experience and depth of analytic exposition, the authors expose racism's searing effects on personal, clinical, and community interactions while providing pathways for change. This book asserts that the insights and practice of psychoanalysis applied behind the couch and in the community create unique opportunities for change. Essayists address racially derived mental health inequities, including distortions, projections, stereotypes, and historical tropes. The Trauma of Racism invites personal and clinical exploration of how people learn, confront, and relearn views on race. Narratives of the loss and grief and the burdens of slavery that crisscross the African American community are present. They are complemented by those of the psychological burdens and inspired acts of personal responsibility that respond to unequal access to wealth and opportunity along racial lines. In moving accounts portraying experiences of racism and access to privilege, the authors grapple with the possibilities of mutual understanding. Readers concerned about racism will find themselves challenged and engaged. This book is intended for the general reader and for clinicians at any career stage. Likewise, scholars in the humanities, law, education, or public policy will find new opportunities to reflect and to act.

The 1931-1940: American Film Institute Catalog of Motion Pictures Produced in the United States American Film Institute, 1993. The entire field of film historians awaits the AFI volumes with eagerness. Eileen Bowser, Museum of Modern Art Film Department. Comments on previous volumes: The source of last resort for finding socially valuable films that received such scant attention that they seem lost until discovered in the AFI Catalog. Thomas Cripps. Endlessly absorbing as an excursion into cultural history and national memory. Arthur Schlesinger Jr.

Dramatic Movement of African American Women Yuvraj Nimbaji Herode, 2023-07-11. The book demonstrates the experiences of Alice Childress, Lorraine Hansberry, and Suzan-Lori Parks in comparison with the dramas of each other and those of other

African American women These women playwrights created a militant theatre and a theatre of experience that applied to both the African American community in general and African and African American women in particular They have been encompassed within African American woman s aesthetics that shares the militancy and experience characterized by a triple factor race gender and class
