gentleman had a kind pleasant looking face wore the typical planter s hat and seemed to take a fatherly interest in us directed us to a certain farm house on our road where we could get accommodations for the night And we passed on having for the first time in our lives seen and talked with the owner of human chattels Some neighbors came to the house where we stayed that night and in earnest fireside talk conveyed the idea that there would be no war for said they when the North finds out that we are in earnest they will not fight us My brother being four years older than I took part in the evening s talk and told them that it was but fair to leave the negro out of the question and to consider the Union as our forefathers left it to us and that he did not think that twenty odd millions of people would consent to have the Union of our forefathers dismembered The next day as we were passing through a densely timbered region an old negro came out from behind a large tree near the wagon track His wool was white as snow his head was bared and holding in one hand an apology for a hat he gave us a courteous bow and said Please Mars is we gwine to be free Their underground telegraph was already bringing word from South Carolina to Missouri My brother being more diplomatic than I could or would have been at the time said to him Why you surprise me Grandpop You look fat and sleek and I know you have more freedom this minute than I have
