So Sure Of Life:

Home Life; a Journal Elizabeth Missing Sewell, 1867      The Little Ball O' Fire; or, the Life and ures of John Marston Hall G. P. R. James, 2016-09-10 My father was a gentleman of small estate in Lincolnshire whose family possessions under a race of generous ancestors had dwindled from splendid lordships to bare competence His blood which was derived from as noble a source as that of any in the land had come down to him pure through a number of knights and nobles who though they were little scrupulous as to the means of spending their riches were very careful not to augment them by cultivating any but the somewhat barren field of war He made a love match with a daughter of the second Lord Wilmerton and in order that his wife might not draw unpleasant comparisons between the station of her husband and that of her father he frequented the court and lived beyond his means He was already in difficulties when I was born but like a brave man he resolved to meet them boldly and after some solicitation obtained a small military appointment which increased his revenue without adding to his expenses Loyalty with him was a passion which like love in other men prevented him from seeing any faults in its object and of course as the court well knew that no benefits could make him more loyal than he already was it showered its favours upon persons whose affection was to be gained leaving him to struggle on without further notice      The Panorama of Life her life and how she gave it her all Her mind has been so abused along with her face With the black and blue marks her swollen eyes leaving only a trace The hurt and pain from his hand leaving the scars within The tears fall from her eyes leaving her with nothing How she tries to smile but the pain gets in the way So many times Ive tried to tell her not to stay But she stayed anyway thinking everything would be fine Knowing hed be home soon as she walked that thin line Finally he came home and again she started to shake So scared as you thought how much more can you take He raised his hand to you once again as you hid with fear Wishing so hard it would all stop including the tears Once again alone in your room with your head in your hands As the blood dripped down your face right where you stand This time it went too far as you fell to the floor As you stood up looking at him face to face You told him to go to hell walking out and forever closing the door     A serious call to a devout and holy life. with an intr. essay by D. Young William Law,1853     Peaceful Life An LianBiAnHua,2020-06-30

The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
