2018 World Cup bid Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2011-07-05 In this report the Culture Media and Sport Committee says it was appalled by allegations made in evidence to the Committee about the conduct of members of the FIFA Executive Committee during the 2018 World Cup Bid process The Committee says the allegations merit a full urgent and independent investigation FIFA is urged to conduct a thorough review of the governance of its bid processes modelled on the steps the International Olympic Committee took after allegations of bribery and corruption in Salt Lake City's bid to host the 2002 Winter Olympic Games The FA should also conduct a review of its 2018 bid England's bid team appears to have lacked a number of the components of a successful bid The FA should review its longer term strategy for engaging with FIFA and other international football authorities in order to increase its influence including with regard to governance reform The Government should also review its advice and its own actions on bidding for international sporting events In particular it should consider its early announcement of the bid and whether sufficient attention was given to evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the England bid

Racism in Football Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Culture, Media and Sport Committee,2012-09-19 The atmosphere experienced by those attending football matches has changed hugely since the 1970s and 80s when racial and other forms of abuse were common Match attendance has become much more of a family friendly activity and clubs continue to introduce measures to try to improve the standards of behaviour at matches However there remain significant problems ranging from homophobic abuse to what is often described as laddish behaviour on the terraces Transparent and consistent methods for reporting criminal behaviour including racism are still lacking in particular at grass roots level The Committee recommends it should be a priority for the FA to develop procedures for stewards to follow and regular training opportunities to ensure that all relevant staff at club grounds are capable of reacting swiftly and consistently to incidents of abuse the efforts being made at league and club level to ensure successful prosecutions in cases of racial abuse are extremely welcome however it is important that similar efforts are applied to the grassroots game all appointments should be based on merit alone irrespective of the candidates race candidates from ethnic minorities to train as coaches and referees to ensure that clubs and boards can select from a more diverse pool of recruits

The Football Manager's Guide to Football Management Iain Macintosh,2015-10-08 The Football Manager Guide to Football Management is for anyone who has ever believed that they could do a better job than their club's manager It's for anyone who has ever tried to prove that point by taking the hot seat in the management simulation Football Manager Whilst most Football Manager players feel they possess innate tactical awareness on point man management skills and a gift for dealing with the media even the most hardened fan would have to admit there s much to be learned from those who ply their trade in the real world If you want to make an immediate impact on your struggling hometown club you need to refer back to Sir Bobby Robson If you want to lay down the law with your young players you need to take tips from Sir Alex Ferguson Want to avoid a financial catastrophe Then learn from Leeds United So if at any point in your life you have imagined yourself in a tracksuit waving your arms in the air on the touchline with your perfect XI scribbled on the back of a beer mat and thinking ahead to the press conference then this book is for you After all you re already a football manager you just haven t been appointed yet
