Director, Program for the Visually Handicapped University of Illinois

The need for a book such as this one has been obvious for years among individuals (individuals and institutions) who are concerned with the education of the visually handicapped. It is not only the need for a book that provides information, but also the need for a book that provides a model for the development of a program for the visually handicapped. This book is a model for the development of a program for the visually handicapped. It is a model for the development of a program for the visually handicapped. It is a model for the development of a program for the visually handicapped.
