Research Council,1950* Department of State Publication ,1950 Fieldnotes Roger Sanjek,2019-06-30 Thirteen distinguished anthropologists describe how they create and use the unique forms of writing they produce in the field They also discuss the fieldnotes of seminal figures Frank Cushing Franz Boas W H R Rivers Bronislaw Malinowski and Margaret Mead and analyze field writings in relation to other types of texts especially ethnographies Unique in conception this volume contributes importantly to current debates on writing texts and reflexivity in anthropology International Organization and Conference Series I-IV. United States. Office of International Conferences,1949 Participation of the United States Government in International Conferences ,1949 Official Year Book of the Commonwealth of Australia No. 41 - 1955 , Theory in the Pacific, the Pacific in Theory Tim Thomas,2020-07-27 Theory in the Pacific the Pacific in Theory explores the role of theory in Pacific archaeology and its interplay with archaeological theory worldwide The contributors assess how the practice of archaeology in Pacific contexts has led to particular types of theoretical enquiry and interest and more broadly how the Pacific is conceptualised in the archaeological imagination Long seen as a laboratory environment for the testing and refinement of social theory the Pacific islands occupy a central place in global theoretical discourse This volume highlights this role through an exploration of how Pacific models and exemplars have shaped and continue to shape approaches to the archaeological past The authors evaluate key theoretical perspectives and explore current and future directions in Pacific archaeology In doing so attention is paid to the influence of Pacific people and environments in motivating and shaping theory building Theory in the Pacific the Pacific in Theory makes a significant contribution to our understanding of how theory develops attuned to the affordances and needs of specific contexts and how those contexts promote reformulation and development of theory elsewhere It will be fascinating to scholars and archaeologists interested in the Pacific region as well as students of wider archaeological theory Choice and Morality in Anthropological Perspective George N. Appell,Triloki N. Madan,1988-07-08 This book explores choice behavior as constrained by culture biology and psychoanalytic processes in a variety of ethnographic contexts in Southeast Asia Oceania and Africa the arena in which the controversy between Derek Freeman and anthropologist Margaret Mead s ideas of culture first developed It also examines the interface between a nomothetic anthropology and a hermeneutic idiographic anthropology raising the critical question as to how ethnographic knowledge of another culture is achieved and transmitted to others Freeman rejects an exclusive reliance on either culture or biology as key to explaining human behavior proposing instead an interactionist paradigm Fundamental to this paradigm is choice behavior which is intrinsic to our biology and basic to the formation of culture for cultures are the accumulation of socially sanctioned past choices However the greater the freedom to choose the greater the scope for good or bad and the greater the need for ethics rules and laws for defining prohibited alternatives Choice and Morality investigates these themes Its authors examine the emergent nature of social reality as a result of choice behavior and illustrate the complexity of Freeman s theoretical position
