Social Conflict And Television News:

Social Conflict and Television News Akiba A. Cohen, Hanna Adoni, Charles Bantz, 1990-11 This book explains in detail how social conflict is presented on television news in the UK and the US South Africa Israel and West Germany This analysis identifies both the general pattern of presenting social conflict and the variations among the five countries It also looks at the perception of social conflict both on television and in reality Through its examination of televised social conflicts and assessment of critical theory s interpretation of media effects the book makes an important contribution to the literature in sociology mass communication politics and intercultural communication Social Conflict in Television News Min-ung

Yi, 1986 Social Conflict and Television News Cohen Akiba, Crime and Local Television News Jeremy H.

Lipschultz, Michael L. Hilt, 2014-04-04 This volume offers an analysis of crime coverage on local television exploring the nature of local television news and the ongoing appeal of crime stories Drawing on the perspectives of media studies psychology sociology and criminology authors Jeremy H Lipschultz and Michael L Hilt focus on live local television coverage of crime and examine its irresistibility to viewers and its impact on society s perceptions of itself They place local television news in its theoretical and historical contexts and consider it through the lens of legal ethical racial aging and technological concerns In its comprehensive examination of how local television newsrooms around the country address coverage of crime this compelling work discusses such controversial issues as the use of crime coverage to build ratings and considers new models for reform of local TV newscasts The volume includes national survey data from news managers and content analyses from late night newscasts in a range of markets and integrates the theory and practice of local television news into the discussion Lipschultz and Hilt also project the future of local television news and predict the impact of social and technological changes on news As a provocative look at the factors and forces shaping local news and crime coverage Crime and Local Television News makes an important contribution to the discussions taking place in broadcast journalism mass communication media and society and theory and research courses It will also interest all who consider the impact of local news content and coverage Interpreting Television News Gabi Schaap, 2009-12-15 Television news range among the most extensively investigated topics in communication studies The book contributes to television news research by focusing on whether and how news viewers who watch the same news program form similar or different interpretations The author develops a novel concept of interpretation based on cognitive complexity research He strongly argues that qualitative and quantitative research methods work best if they complement one another The Known World of Broadcast News Stanley Baran, 2003-09-02 First published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company The Television News Interview Akiba A. Cohen, 1987-06 How and why does television news interviewing differ from country to country In this comparative study of the news in the UK the US Israel and West Germany Cohen shows that while the structure and content of TV news is very similar interviews reflect political social and cultural factors Cohen examines news interviewing from theoretical empirical and practical perspectives Through a comprehensive literature review content analysis and personal interviews with reporters he demonstrates that news interviews should be viewed as social constructs
