Rivero, 2017-12-20 Although fictional and often fantastic representations of nature have been a distinguishing feature of Latin American literature for centuries ecocriticism understood as the study of literature as it relates to depictions of the natural world environmental issues and the ways in which human beings interact and identify with their natural surroundings did not emerge as a field of scholarly interest in the region until the end of the twentieth century This volume employs an ecocritical lens in order to explore and guestion the use of the river imagery in Latino and Latin American literature from the colonial period to our modern world creating a space in which to examine both its literal and figurative meanings associated as much with processes of a personal nature as with those of the collective experience in the region The slow meandering streams of nostalgia the raging currents of conflict or the stagnant waters of social decay are just a few of the ways in which the river has become an important symbol and inspiration to many of the region s writers This book offers a diverse collection of writings that through a trans historical and trans geographical perspective allows us from the vantage point of the twenty first century to reflect on the rich and dynamic image of the river and by extension on the vital context of Latin o America its people and societies Geographies of Relation Theresa Delgadillo, 2024-09-03 Geographies of Relation offers a new lens for examining diaspora and borderlands texts and performances that considers the inseparability of race ethnicity and gender in imagining and enacting social change Theresa Delgadillo crosses interdisciplinary and canonical borders to investigate the interrelationships of African descended Latinx and mestizx peoples through an analysis of Latin American Latinx and African American literature film and performance Not only does Delgadillo offer a rare extended analysis of Black Latinidades in Chicanx literature and theory but she also considers over a century s worth of literary cinematic and performative texts to support her argument about the significance of these cultural sites and overlaps Chapters illuminate the significance of To a La Negra in the Golden Age of Mexican cinema reconsider feminist theorist Gloria Anzald a s work in revising exclusionary Latin American ideologies of mestizaje delve into the racial and gender frameworks Sandra Cisneros attempts to rewrite unpack encounters between African Americans and Black Puerto Ricans in texts by James Baldwin and
