beliefs and values of humanism as well as the reality and personal experience of living as a humanist today Questions discussed in this book include How do humanists see the relation between science and religious belief Is humanism wedded to science as the only valid form of knowledge What value do humanists place on the arts and can they value religious art Does the emphasis on human responsibility depend on an untenable belief in free will and is this undermined by psychology and neuroscience Do humanists think that life is sacred What account would humanists give of the basis of human rights and why they are important Does humanism entail that human life is meaningless and pointless Can humanists meet the challenge of nihilism Understanding Humanism provides a reliable and easily digestible introduction to the field By exploring these questions and inviting readers to engage with the arguments it serves as the ideal textbook for those approaching the topic of humanism for the first time

Poems of Francis Thompson Francis Thompson, 2002-07-04 During the research for her biography of Francis Thompson Between Heaven and Charing Cross it became clear to Brigid Boardman that a new edition of his poetry was essential for a full recognition of the range and variety of his work He remains best known for his great poem The Hound of Heaven but his work as a whole has never been properly presented All previous editions include the many alterations and deletions that were made to Thompson's work posthumously by Wilfrid Meynell for the edition of 1913 Meynell's aim was to present the poetry in a strictly orthodox Catholic light in a period when fears about Modernism influenced the Church's understanding of literature These anxieties have not served the poetry well Thompson's aim was to be the poet of the return to God and his work expresses the divine presence that he believed permeated all aspects of life This edition finally restores an important English poet to the readers that he so deserves
