Diasporic Poetics Timothy Yu, 2021-07-08 This book advances a new concept of the Asian diaspora that creates links between Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian identities Drawing from comparable studies of the black diaspora it traces the histories of colonialism immigration and exclusion shared by these three populations The work of Asian poets in each of these three countries offers a rich terrain for understanding how Asian identities emerge at the intersection of national and transnational flows with the poets thematic and formal choices reflecting the varied pressures of social and cultural histories as well as the influence of Asian writers in other national locations Diasporic Poetics argues that racialized and nationally bounded Asian identities often emerge from transnational political solidarities from Third World struggles against colonialism to the global influence of the American civil rights movement Indeed this volume shows that Asian writers disclaim national belonging as often as they claim it placing Asian diasporic writers at a critical distance from the national spaces within which they write As the first full length study to compare Asian American Asian Canadian and Asian Australian writers the book offers the historical and cultural contexts necessary to understand the distinctive development of Asian writing in each country while also offering close analysis of the work of writers such as Janice Mirikitani Fred Wah Ouyang Yu Myung Mi Kim and Cathy Park Hong

The Homeric Epics and the Chinese Book of Songs

Fritz-Heiner Mutschler, 2018-12-19 The Homeric epics and the Book of Songs are not just the fountainheads of the Western and Chinese literary traditions for centuries they played a central role in education and communal life and thus exercised a lasting influence on both civilizations This volume presents the first systematic comparison of the two corpora Part One analyzes their genesis and their reception while Part Two discusses their characteristics as poetic creations The book brings together Chinese and Western sinologists and classicists and so promotes significant interdisciplinary and intercultural dialogue Though the contributors rank among the leading experts in their fields the essays here are accessible not only to their peers but also to the interested general reader and so to all those who seek a deeper understanding of Chinese and Western civilizations their common human basis and their characteristic differences     The New Directions Anthology of Classical Chinese Poetry Eliot Weinberger,2003 Provides translations of more than two hundred fifty poems by over forty poets from early anonymous poetry through the Tang and Song dynasties     Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry Ping Wang,Nicholas Morrow Williams,2015-01-01 From ancient times China's remote and exotic South a shifting and expanding region beyond the Yangtze River has been an enduring theme in Chinese literature For poets and scholar officials in medieval China the South was a barbaric frontier region of alienation and disease But it was also a place of richness and fascination and for some a site of cultural triumph over exile The eight essays in this collection explore how tensions between pride in southern culture and anxiety over the alien qualities of the southern frontier were behind many of the distinctive features of medieval Chinese literature They examine how prominent writers from this period depicted themselves and the South in poetic form through attitudes that included patriotic attachment and bitter exile By the Tang dynasty poetic symbols and clichés about the exotic South had become well established though many writers were still able to use these in innovative ways Southern Identity and Southern Estrangement in Medieval Chinese Poetry is the first work in English to examine the cultural south in classical Chinese poetry The book incorporates original research on key poets such as Lu Ji Jiang Yan Wang Bo and Li Bai It also offers a broad survey of cultural and historical trends during the medieval period as depicted in poetry The book will be of interest to students of Chinese literature and cultural history Ping Wang is assistant professor of Chinese at University of Washington Seattle Nicholas Morrow Williams is research assistant professor at the Mr Simon Suen and Mrs Mary Suen Sino Humanitas Institute Hong Kong Baptist University A long overdue appreciation of the South as a center for the production of medieval Chinese literature as well as a focal point of Chinese cultural and intellectual reflection and identity this collection of essays by a stellar roster of leading scholars offers an immensely rich contribution to the study of classical Chinese poetry Martin Kern Greg 84 and Joanna P13 Zeluck Professor in Asian Studies Princeton University This book presents a systematic study of how the symbol of the southland was reinvented in medieval Chinese literature taking readers on a cultural and geographic journey to survey the continuous rewriting of the South and its identity Yu Yu Cheng Distinguished Professor of Chinese Literature National Taiwan University     The Columbia Book of Chinese Poetry Burton Watson,1984 Important poets such as Tao Y     The Art of Chinese Poetry James J. Y. Liu,1966-04-15 This concise introduction to Chinese poetry serves as a primer for English speakers eager to expand their understanding and enjoyment of Chinese culture James J Y Liu first examines the Chinese language as a medium of poetic expression and contrary to the usual focus on the visual qualities of Chinese script emphasizes the auditory effects of Chinese verse He provides a succinct survey of Chinese poetry theory and concludes with his own view of poetry based upon traditional Chinese concepts This books should be read by all those interested in Chinese poetry Achilles Fang Poetry This is a significant contribution to the understanding and appreciation of Chinese poetry lucidly presented in a way that will attract a wide audience and offering an original synthesis of Chinese and Western views that will stimulate and inspire students of poetry everywhere Hans H Frankel Harvard Journal of Asiatic Studies This is a book which can be recommended without reservation to anyone who wants to explore the world of Chinese poetry in translation James R Hightower Journal of Asian Studies

Chinese Poetic Writing Francois Cheng,2017-03-28 The most inovative study of Chinese poetry ever written Fran ois Cheng s Chinese Poetic Writing now in its first expanded English language edition is an essential read for fans and scholars of Chinese literature and the art of poetry in general Since its first publication in French in 1977 Chinese Poetic Writing has been considered by many to be the most innovative study of Chinese poetry ever written as well as a profound and remarkable meditation on the nature of poetry itself As the American poet Gustaf Sobin wrote two years after the book s appearance In France it is already considered a model of interdisciplinary research a source book and a star in the very space it initially explored traced and elaborated Cheng illustrates his text with an annotated anthology of 135 poems he has selected from the Tang dynasty presented bilingually and with lively translations by Jerome P Seaton It serves as a book within the book and an excellent introduction to the golden age of Tu Fu Li Po Wang Wei and company The 1982 translation long out of print was based on the first French edition Since then Cheng has greatly expanded the book This is the first English language edition of the expanded version with the original translators returning to accommodate the many new additions and revise their earlier work
