Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music Yuan Jingfang, 2023-03-08 Comprehensive Introduction to Chinese Traditional Music offers a detailed survey of Chinese traditional music in five chapters each dealing with a different genre. The five genres are folk songs, dance music, narrative singing music from Chinese opera, and instrumental music. The book begins with an introduction providing an overview of Chinese traditional music history, its connotations, and main musical features, an indispensable context for readers unfamiliar with the subject. Within the main text, the authors discuss not only the local music genres, focusing on instruments, music analysis, and tonal theories, but also the historical evolution, performance, and social contexts associated with the music. A glossary of Chinese musical terms is listed in the appendix.

Wounds of Our Past Emmanuel Saboro, 2022-04-11 Emmanuel Saboro's study on memories of the slave era in northern Ghana is a most welcome addition to a long and storied scholarly tradition examining song lyrics associated with the institution of slavery. As one might expect, the vast majority of such studies focus on the music traditions of the enslaved in North America. Collected between the mid 19th and early 20th century, historians, musicologists, and literary scholars have systematically analyzed these songs for what the lyrics can tell us about experiences during the era of slavery and the slave trade. Similar works that focus on West Africa, however, are rare indeed. Like his North American counterparts, Saboro examines the songs of northern Ghana as coded messages that express hope, comfort, resistance, rage, and triumph over adversity. Having no fixed meanings, Saboro describes them as both flexible and greatly useful for conveying a variety of meanings.
