

SONIDOS DE LA NATURALEZA RELAJANTES

A serene night scene with a full moon and two birds on a branch. The background is a deep blue and purple gradient, suggesting twilight or night. A bright, glowing full moon is visible in the upper left quadrant. Two dark silhouettes of birds are perched on a thin, dark branch that extends diagonally across the frame. The overall mood is calm and peaceful.

Affectual Erasure Cynthia Margarita Tompkins, 2018-08-23 Affectual Erasure examines how Argentine cinema has represented Indigenous peoples throughout a period spanning roughly a century Cynthia Margarita Tompkins interrelates her discussion of films with the ethnographic context of the Indigenous peoples represented and an analysis of the affective dimensions at play These emotions underscore the inherent violence of generic conventions as well as the continued political violence preventing Indigenous peoples from access to their ancestral lands and cultural mores Tompkins explores a broad range of movies beginning in the silent period and includes both feature films and documentaries underscored by archival and contemporary film stills She traces the initial erotic projection moving through melodrama to the conventions of the Western into the 1960s focus on decolonization superseded by allegorical renditions and the promise of self expression in late twentieth century documentaries Each section includes an introduction to the sociohistorical events of the period and their impact on film production Analyzed chronologically the films evidence different stages in the projection of the hegemonic Argentine imaginary which fails to envision the daily life of Indigenous peoples prior to conquest or in colonial times and remains in denial of their existence in the present

Global South Modernities Gorica Majstorovic,2020-09-10 Global South Modernities Modernist Literature and the Avant Garde in Latin America examines the seminal influence that Latin American writers had on the style subject matter and ideology of literature in the Global South from 1900 to the late 1930s Gorica Majstorovic challenges the historical and racial logic of interwar Latin American literary studies by introducing the solidarity relations between the global decolonial movements and placing anti imperialism Blackness and indigeneity at the center of decolonial analysis Following Mignolo de Sousa Santos and Cheah the texts under analysis subvert the processes of European colonial worlding and show modernity itself as pluralized Drawing on these works Majstorovic bridges the gap between aesthetics and politics while shifting the focus onto the Latin American transnational modernist networks and situating the analysis within the theoretical frameworks of the Global South While examining the idea of globality through its different conceptualizations cosmopolitanism immigration and travel Majstorovic analyzes avant garde magazines of the 1920s Mexican petrofiction urban proletarian and decolonial travel narratives of the 1930s calling into question modernism's usual framing as an Anglo American interwar phenomenon Majstorovic constructs a new genealogy of Latin American literature by examining the asymmetrical relations within its multiple modernities and offers a new understanding of Latin American interwar literature through the lens of the Global South

A Companion to Pablo Neruda Jason Wilson, 2014-08 Pablo Neruda was without doubt one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century but his work is extremely uneven There is a view that there are two Nerudas an early Romantic visionary and a later Marxist populist who denied his earlier poetic self By focussing on the poet s apprenticeship and by looking closely at how Neruda created his poetic persona within his poems this Companion tries to establish what should survive of his massive output By seeing his early work as self exploration through metaphor and sound as well as through varieties of love and direct experience the Companion outlines a unity behind all the work based on voice and a public self Neruda s debt to reading and books is studied in depth and the change in poetics re examined by concentrating on the early work up to Residencia en la tierra I and II and why he wanted to become a poet Debate about quality and representativity is grounded in his Romantic thinking sensibility and sincerity Unlike a Borges or a Paz who accompanied their creative work with analytical essays Neruda distilled all his experiences into his poems which remain his true biography Jason Wilson is Professor Emeritus in the Department of Spanish and Latin American Studies University College London Gracias a la Vida R.
