Sorcerers Apprentice A Journey Through East Africa:

The Sorcerer's Apprentice Elspeth Huxley, 1956 The Sorcerer's Apprentice Elspeth Huxley, 1949 Dr. William Edward Dillon, Navy Surgeon in Livingstone's Africa Julia Turner, 2015 It was the 1860s and slave traders were slipping across the seas between Zanzibar and Arabia Irish surgeon Dr William Edward Dillon sic hunted them down in British tall ships tasked with the medical care for all on board including rescued slaves from the captured trading vessels When the great missionary David Livingstone went missing in central Africa in 1872 Dr Dillon grounded with a damaged ship led the Livingstone East Coast Expedition as second in command They marched 500 miles with badly needed medical supplies only to discover the worst Livingstone was dead Dillon met his death in the middle of Africa But the circumstances around his death are labelled suspicious and a new expedition in 2004 sets off to find the answers Back cover The Sorcerer's Apprentice Elspeth Huxley, 1956 Writing for Kenya ,2009 Henry Muoria 1914 97 self taught journalist and pamphleteer helped to inspire Kenya s nationalisms before Mau Mau The pamphlets reproduced here in Gikuyu and English contrast his own originality with the conservatism of Jomo Kenyatta Kenya s first President The contributing editors introduce Muoria s political context tell how three remarkable women sustained his families life and remember him as father Courageous intellectual political and domestic life here intertwine Saben's Commercial Directory and Handbook of Uganda ,1960 Eclipse of Empire D. A. Low, 1991 The middle decades of the twentieth century witnessed the great dramas of the ending of Western imperial rule in Africa and Asia A series of nationalist onslaughts was launched against the British Empire and these greatly reshaped the modern world Professor Anthony Low has studied the end of the British Empire and its aftermath for many years This volume brings together for the first time many of his major essays on the subject

Bookseller's catalogues Thornton J. and son, 1883 Uganda William Harold Ingrams, 1960 Tensions of Empire Frederick Cooper, Ann Laura Stoler, 1997-02-06 Starting with the premise that Europe was made by its imperial projects as much as colonial encounters were shaped by events and conflicts in Europe the contributors to Tensions of Empire investigate metropolitan colonial relationships from a new perspective The fifteen essays demonstrate various ways in which civilizing missions in both metropolis and colony provided new sites for clarifying a bourgeois order Focusing on the eighteenth nineteenth and early twentieth centuries they show how new definitions of modernity and welfare were developed and how new discourses and practices of inclusion and exclusion were contested and worked out The contributors argue that colonial studies can no longer be confined to the units of analysis on which it once relied instead of being the study of the colonized it must account for the shifting political terrain on which the very categories of colonized and colonizer have been shaped and patterned at different times Report on Kenya Great Britain. Colonial Office, 1955 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing Terrence L. Craig, 2017-03-27 The White Spaces of Kenyan Settler Writing provides an overview of Kenyan literature by white writers in the half century before Independence in 1964 Such literature has been over shadowed by that of black writers to the point of critical ostracism It deserves attention for its own sake as the expression of a community that hoped for permanence but suffered both disappointment and dispossession It deserves attention for its articulation of an increasingly desperate colonial and Imperial situation at a time when both were being attacked and abandoned in Africa as in other colonies elsewhere and when a counter discourse was being constructed by writers in Britain as well as in Africa Kenya was likely the best known twentieth century colony for it attracted publicity for its iconic safaris and its Happy Valley scandals Yet behind such scenes were settlers who had taken over lands from the native peoples and who were trying to make a future for themselves based on the labour willing or forced of those people This situation can be seen as a microcosm of one colonial exercise and can illuminate the historical tensions of such times The bibliography is an attempt to collect the literary resources of white Kenya in this historically significant period

Sorcerer's Apprentice Tahir Shah,2011-07-01 Sorcerer's Apprentice is the amazing story of Shah's apprenticeship to one of India's master conjurers Hakim Feroze and his initiation into the brotherhood of Indian godmen Told with self deprecating wit panache and an eye for the outlandish it is an account of a magical journey across India Feroze teaches the author the basics of his craft such as sleights of hand immersing his hands in boiling oil and lead and Aaron's old trick from the Bible turning a rod into a serpent To complete his training and prove himself he is sent on a quest to discover the ways illusion is manifested in every corner of the subcontinent Saddled with a hilarious sidekick and guide he calls the Trickster Shah travels from Calcutta to Madras from Bangalore to Bombay Even as he recounts the most miraculous and bizarre feats of the sadhus sages sorcerers avatars fortune tellers healers hypnotists and humbugs whom he encounters he reveals and admires the imagination and resourcefulness ordinary Indians deploy in order to survive In this incredible book Tahir Shah lifts the veil on the East's most puzzling miracles and exposes a side of India that most never imagine exists

British Travel Writers, 1940-1997 Barbara Brothers,Julia Marie Gergits,1999 Essays on British travel writers explores the political and social changes that occurred after World War II Technology such as color television home video the Internet and CD ROM's brought people pictures from around the world broadened their interest in travel Includes discussion of the various types of travel literature including political scientific historical and adventurous as well as the role of women travel writers

The Culture of Colonialism T. O. Beidelman,2021-12-22 What did it mean to be an African subject living in remote areas of Tanganyika at the end of the colonial era For the Kaguru of Tanganyika it meant daily confrontation with the black and white governmental officials tasked with bringing this rural people into the mainstream of colonial African life T O Beidelman's detailed narrative links this administrative world to the Kaguru's wider social cultural and geographical milieu and to the political history ideas of indirect rule and the white institutions that loomed just beyond their world Beidelman unveils the colonial system's problems as it extended its authority into rural areas and shows how these problems persisted even after African independence

Library,1965 Rumor Mills Veronique Champion-Vincent,2017-07-05 The goal of this volume is to explore the social and political dynamics of rumor and the related concept of urban or contemporary legend These forms of communication often appear in tandem with social problems including riots racial or political violence and social and economic upheavals The volume emphasizes the connection of rumor to a set of social concerns from government corruption and corporate scandal to racial religious and other prejudices Central to the dialogue are issues of truth belief history public policy and evidence Rumor has been recognized as one of the most important contributing factors to violence and discrimination Yet despite its significance in exacerbating social discord and mistrust little systematic scholarly attention has been paid to the political origins and consequences of rumor. Rumor is defined as a proposition for belief that is not backed by secure standards of evidence. Rumor can be traditional or not and can be expressed as a simple claim of fact. In both instances, groups of claim makers operating out of their own interests and with a set of resources attempt to depict reality and, if possible, impact the future. The need for this book is underscored by changing patterns of technology. What in the past was grounded in face-to-face interaction is now often found on the Internet, which is a major source of rumor. An appreciation of how new electronic forms of communication affect communal belief is essential for explicating rumor dynamics. The volume is comprehensive. Essays cover race and ethnicity, migration and globalization, corporate malfeasance and state and government corruption. While editors and contributors well appreciate the dynamic nature of rumors and legends, the high quality of the effort makes it evident that the issues that are raised and reoccur will serve to channel and inspire research in this major field of communications research for years to come.
