Economics of Art Auctions Gianfranco Mossetto, Marilena Vecco, 2002 Painting the Inhabited Landscape

Margaretta M. Lovell, 2023-03-27 The impulse in much nineteenth century American painting and culture was to describe nature as a wilderness on which the young nation might freely inscribe its future the United States as a virgin land that is unploughed unfenced and unpainted Insofar as it exhibited evidence of a past its traces pointed to a geologic or cosmic past not a human one The work of the New England artist Fitz H Lane however was decidedly different In this important study Margaretta Markle Lovell singles out the more modestly scaled explicitly inhabited landscapes of Fitz H Lane and investigates the patrons who supported his career with an eye to understanding how New Englanders thought about their land their economy their history and their links with widely disparate global communities Lane s works depict nature as productive and allied in partnership with humans to create a sustainable balanced political economy What emerges from this close look at Lane s New England is a picture not of a virgin wilderness but of a land deeply resonant with its former uses and a human history that incorporates rather than excludes Native Americans as shapers of land and as agents in that history Calling attention to unexplored dimensions of nineteenth century painting Painting the Inhabited Landscape is a major intervention in the scholarship on American art of the period examining how that body of work commented on American culture and informs our understanding of canon formation

The Art Dealer's Apprentice David Guenther, 2024-03-05 The Art Dealer s Apprentice tells the story of how the author moved to New York in 1989 as a young Midwesterner found a job at an Upper East Side gallery and became the prot g of Carla Panicali an Italian countess and major international art world figure From Carla an extraordinary woman whom he deeply admired the author learned to navigate the treacherous waters of authenticity power and money in the art business and his own life As gallery director he gradually piloted the gallery through a sea of fakes frauds and unscrupulous colleagues competitors collectors and experts until the art market crashed and in the ensuing crisis in the increasingly money driven art world of the 1990s he came to question even the authenticity of his friendship with Carla In The Art Dealer s Apprentice the author recounts how he learned the New York art business from the inside including the roles of dealers auction houses runners collectors and experts the personal histories of famous artists and the art historical importance and salability of their work and how paintings and sculptures were or were not authenticated and sold often based surprisingly on factors having little to do with the artwork itself The author also details how international business was done in some cases through illicit transport of artworks payoffs to experts and Swiss bank accounts Increasingly disillusioned the author ultimately concludes that by the early 1990s the art business was no longer really about art Sotheby's at Auction Sotheby's (Firm),2009 The Art of the Steal Christopher Mason,2005-05-03 The Art of the Steal tells the story of several larger than life figures the billionaire tycoon Alfred Taubman the most powerful woman in the art world Dede Brooks and the wily British executive Christopher Davidge who conspired to cheat their clients out of millions of dollars It offers an unprecedented look inside this secretive glamorous gold plated industry describing just how Sotheby's and Christie's grew from clubby aristocratic businesses into slick international corporations And it shows how the groundwork for the most recent illegal activities was laid decades before the perpetrators were caught by federal prosecutors Recasting the Past: The Art of Chinese Bronzes, 1100-1900 Pengliang Lu,2025-02-28 Bronze vessels were the ultimate emblems of power in ancient China Beginning in the twelfth century the rediscovery of ancient bronzes as evidence of an earlier golden age led to a revival of bronze casting This publication is the first comprehensive study of these later Chinese bronzes in archaic styles which were commissioned by emperors and officials from the twelfth through the nineteenth centuries to assert political legitimacy and alignment with traditional values Redressing the misconception that these works were mere imitations of the ancient vessels they emulated Recasting the Past demonstrates that they were in fact creative reinterpretations of antique shapes and decorative motifs that were fundamentally new creations with their own aesthetic and functional character Featuring nearly two hundred objects many never before published including ceremonial bells incense burners flower vases ritual vessels and writing utensils Pengliang Lu explores their cultural and political significance from the Song dynasty through the Qing dynasty and shows their enormous influence on Chinese art and culture Ancient Egypt in the Modern Imagination Eleanor Dobson,Nichola Tonks,2020-01-23 Ancient Egypt has always been a source of fascination to writers artists and architects in the West This book is the first study to address representations of Ancient Egypt in the modern imagination breaking down conventional disciplinary boundaries between fields such as History Classics Art History Fashion Film Archaeology Egyptology and Literature to further a nuanced understanding of ancient Egypt in cultures stretching from the eighteenth century to the present day emphasising how some of the various meanings of ancient Egypt to modern people have traversed time and media Divided into three themes the chapters scrutinise different aspects of the use of ancient Egypt in a variety of media looking in particular at the ways in which Egyptology as a discipline has influenced representations of Egypt ancient Egypt's associations with death and mysticism as well as connections between ancient Egypt and gendered power The diversity of this study aims to emphasise both the multiplicity and the patterning of popular responses to ancient Egypt as well as the longevity of this phenomenon and its relevance today Subject Guide to Books in Print ,1997 The Global Art World

Young, Sarah M. McKinnon, 2017-10-13 What force of will and circumstance drove a woman from a comfortable life painting china tea services to one of hardship and loneliness in the battle zones of France and Belgium following the Great War For western Canadian artist Mary Riter Hamilton 1868-1954 art was her life's passion Her tale is one of tragedy and adventure from homestead beginnings to genteel drawing rooms in Winnipeg Victoria and Vancouver to Berlin and Parisian art schools to Vimy and Ypres and finally to illness and poverty in old age No Man's Land is the first biographical study of Hamilton whose work can be found in galleries and art museums throughout Canada Young and McKinnon's meticulous research in unpublished private collections brings to light new correspondence between Hamilton and her friends revealing the importance of female networks to an artist's well-being. Her letters from abroad in particular bring a woman's perspective into the immediate post-war period and give voice to trying conditions. Hamilton's career is situated within the context of her peers Florence Carlyle, Emily Carr and Sophie Pemberton with whom she shared a Canadian and European experience. Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity Jaye Early, 2025-01-23 This is the first book of its kind to examine the development of the confessional subject in video art and demonstrate how it can provide a vital platform for navigating the politics of self subjectivity and resistance in society. In doing so it reframes video art the most ubiquitous and yet most understudied art form of recent decades as an urgent socio-political tool that is increasingly popular among contemporary artists as a means of exploring a broad range of social issues from politics and identity to the body and technologies of self-representation. Analysing a diverse selection of case studies from the 1960s up to the present day covering the work of Yoko Ono, Gillian Wearing, Ryan Trecartin, Tracey Emin, Anatasia Klose and Heath Franco among others the book brings together theory and practice to look afresh at contemporary video art through a Foucauldian lens. It also brings the analysis of video art up to date by showing how social media and digital self-representation has informed and further politicized time-based art practices. Confessional Video Art and Subjectivity shows how forms of confessional discourse not only play an important function in the construction of subjectivity but also open spaces for personal resistance and agency within contemporary video art. As a result it offers researchers of contemporary art practice and media and cultural studies an updated framework through which to view this constantly evolving genre and a deeper understanding of wider contemporary video practices. Danish Modern Andrew Hollingsworth, 2009-09 For serious furniture collectors Danish is more than a pastry it's an art form. Twentieth-century Danish furniture design is simple and clean, mixes well with other design styles and has an inherent value and history beyond its beauty. In Danish Modern Andrew Hollingsworth explores the history of Danish design from the earliest cabinetmakers' guilds in the 1770s through the impact of two world wars and its evolution into the twentieth century. The book includes photographic surveys of Danish Modern furniture in homes across the United States, a market guide with tips, facts and resources that includes discussions of veneer vs solid wood, places to find Danish Modern furniture and a guide to caring for it and an extensive resource section. Art in America, 1999
