Gross,Anne Valley,2012-04-24 Human beings have long imagined their subjectivity ethics and ancestry with and through animals yet not until the mid twentieth century did contemporary thought reflect critically on animals significance in human self conception Thinkers such as French philosopher Jacques Derrida South African novelist J M Coetzee and American theorist Donna Haraway have initiated rigorous inquiries into the question of the animal now blossoming in a number of directions It is no longer strange to say that if animals did not exist we would have to invent them This interdisciplinary and cross cultural collection reflects the growth of animal studies as an independent field and the rise of animality as a critical lens through which to analyze society and culture on a par with race and gender Essays consider the role of animals in the human imagination and the imagination of the human the worldviews of indigenous peoples animal human mythology in early modern China and political uses of the animal in postcolonial India They engage with the theoretical underpinnings of the animal protection movement representations of animals in children's literature depictions of animals in contemporary art and the philosophical positioning of the animal from Aristotle to Derrida The strength of this companion lies in its timeliness and contextual diversity which makes it essential reading for students and researchers while further developing the parameters of the discipline Animals in Young Adult Fiction Walter Hogan,2009-07-01 Of the many themes occurring in young adult literature one that bears more extensive exploration is the adolescent animal connection Although substantial critical commentary has addressed children's animal stories and animals in adult fiction very few studies have been devoted to adolescent animal encounters In Animals in Young Adult Fiction Walter Hogan examines several hundred novels and stories to explore the ways in which animals are represented in these works In addition to providing an historical survey Hogan looks at both realistic fiction and speculative works including fantasy supernatural horror and science fiction Hogan reviews stories that feature wild animal encounters stories centered on relationships with horses dogs and other working and performing animals and those featuring relationships with pets Drawing upon established scholarship this book examines human animal relationships from multiple angles making it an invaluable resource for librarians teachers and students of children s and young adult literature
