Souls In Stone European Graveyard Sculpture:

Souls in Stone Anne de Brunhoff, 1978-01-01 The Revival Styles in American Memorial Art Peggy McDowell, Richard E. Meyer, 1994 From the late eighteenth through the early twentieth centuries a sweeping movement in architectural and decorative taste dominated Western cultures Known collectively by the descriptive term Revival Styles this phenomenon which left a rich visual legacy upon the cultural landscapes of many nations exhibited three primary manifestations Classical chiefly Greek and Roman Gothic or Medieval and Egyptian or Near Eastern In America for a variety of reasons a significantly large amount of the creative energy inherent in the Revival movement was directed towards the conception and erection of spectacular monuments and memorials to prominent Americans Frequently designed and executed by the leading architects and sculptors of the day the great majority of these strikingly beautiful artifacts and structures were placed in the large rural cemeteries of American cities developed in the middle decades of the nineteenth century where they remain for future generations to analyze and admire In this richly illustrated volume art historian Peggy McDowell and folklorist Richard E Meyer blend their respective disciplinary perspectives along with their shared long standing fascination with cemeteries and funerary material culture to provide a thoroughgoing descriptive analysis of this dramatic chapter in the history of American memorial art BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved
