Sound Of Our Own Voices Womens Study Clubs 1860 191:

The Sound of Our Own Voices Theodora Penny Martin, 1987 A moving and eloquent account of women s attempts to provide for themselves by means of study clubs some semblance of the education society had denied them The story Penny Martin tells constitutes a major contribution to the history of women s education and she tells it with warmth and wit and grace Blythe Clinchy Songs of Ourselves Joan Shelley Rubin, 2009-07-01 Rubin shows how the sites and practices of reciting poetry influenced American readers lives and helped them to find meaning in a poet s words By blurring boundaries between high and popular poetry and between modern and traditional Rubin reveals a fuller more democratic way of studying our poetic language and ourselves A History of the Book in America, 5-volume Omnibus E-book David D. Hall, 2015-10-08 The five volumes in A History of the Book in America offer a sweeping chronicle of our country s print production and culture from colonial times to the end of the twentieth century This interdisciplinary collaborative work of scholarship examines the book trades as they have developed and spread throughout the United States provides a history of U S literary cultures investigates the practice of reading and more broadly the uses of literacy and links literary culture with larger themes in American history Now available for the first time this complete Omnibus ebook contains all 5 volumes of this landmark work Volume 1 The Colonial Book in the Atlantic World Edited by Hugh Amory and David D Hall 664 pp 51 illus Volume 2 An Extensive Republic Print Culture and Society in the New Nation 1790 1840 Edited by Robert A Gross and Mary Kelley 712 pp 66 illus Volume 3 The Industrial Book 1840 1880 Edited by Scott E Casper Jeffrey D Groves Stephen W Nissenbaum and Michael Winship 560 pp 43 illus Volume 4 Print in Motion The Expansion of Publishing and Reading in the United States 1880 1940 Edited by Carl F Kaestle and Janice A Radway 688 pp 74 illus Volume 5 The Enduring Book Print Culture in Postwar America Edited by David Paul Nord Joan Shelley Rubin and Michael Schudson 632 pp 95 illus Teach the Nation Anne-Elizabeth Murdy, 2018-10-24 Is knowledge power In Teach the Nation Anne Elizabeth Murdy explores the history and contradictions in the notion that education and literacy are vital means for improving social and political status in the US By closely examining the rapidly shifting social context of education and the emerging literature by and for African American women during the 1890s Murdy proves that the histories of education and literature are deeply connected and argues that their current lives must be regarded as mutually dependent Teach the Nation offers a new understanding of literacy and pedagogical study and identifies how literary history enhances current feminist and anti racist teachings By excavating notions about education in the 1890s as turbulent a time for American public education as today Murdy asks readers to step back from this historical moment to better understand the contexts and institutions within which we theorize learning and teaching In doing so she compels readers to reimagine the potential for gaining social power through education and literature A History of the Book in America Carl F. Kaestle, Janice A. Radway, 2015-12-01 In a period characterized by expanding markets national consolidation and social upheaval print culture picked up momentum as the nineteenth century turned into the twentieth Books magazines and newspapers were produced more quickly and more cheaply reaching ever increasing numbers of readers Volume 4 of A History of the Book in America traces the complex even contradictory consequences of these changes in the production circulation and use of print Contributors to this volume explain that although mass production encouraged consolidation and standardization readers increasingly adapted print to serve their own purposes allowing for increased diversity in the midst of concentration and integration Considering the book in larger social and cultural networks essays address the rise of consumer culture the extension of literacy and reading through schooling the expansion of secondary and postsecondary education and the growth of the textbook industry the growing influence of the professions and their dependence on print culture and the history of relevant technology As the essays here attest the expansion of print culture between 1880 and 1940 enabled it to become part of Americans everyday business social political and religious lives Contributors Megan Benton Pacific Lutheran University Paul S Boyer University of Wisconsin Madison Una M Cadegan University of Dayton Phyllis Dain Columbia University James P Danky University of Wisconsin Madison Ellen Gruber Garvey New Jersey City University Peter Jaszi American University Carl F Kaestle Brown University Nicolas Kanellos University of Houston Richard L Kaplan ABC Clio Publishing Marcel Chotkowski LaFollette Washington D C Elizabeth Long Rice University Elizabeth McHenry New York University Sally M Miller University of the Pacific Richard Ohmann Wesleyan University Janice A Radway Duke University Joan Shelley Rubin University of Rochester Jonathan D Sarna Brandeis University Charles A Seavey University of Missouri Columbia Michael Schudson University of California San Diego William Vance Trollinger Jr University of Dayton Richard L Venezky 1938 2004 James L W West III Pennsylvania State University Wayne A Wiegand Florida State University Michael Winship University of Texas at Austin Martha Woodmansee Case Western Reserve University

Renovating Rhetoric in Christian Tradition Elizabeth Vander Lei, Thomas Amorose, Beth Daniell, Anne Ruggles Gere, 2014-02-28 Throughout history determined individuals have appropriated and reconstructed rhetorical and religious resources to create effective arguments In the process they have remade both themselves and their communities This edited volume offers notable examples of these reconstructions ranging from the formation of Christianity to questions about the relationship of religious and academic ways of knowing The initial chapters explore historic challenges to Christian doctrines and gender roles Contributors examine Mormon women s campaigns for the recognition of their sect women s suffrage and the statehood of Utah the Seventh day Adventist challenge to the mainstream designation of Sunday as the Sabbath a female minister who confronted the gendered tenets of early Methodism and created her own sacred spaces women who across three centuries fashioned an apostolic voice of humble authority rooted in spiritual conversion and members of the Woman s Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church who redefined notions of women s intellectual capacity and appropriate fields for work from the Civil War through World War II Considering contemporary learning environments other contributors explore resources that can help faculty and students of composition and rhetoric consider more fully the relations of religion and academic work These contributors call upon the work of theologians philosophers and biblical scholars to propose strategies for building trust through communication The final chapters examine the writings of Apostle Paul and his use of Jewish forms of argumentation and provide an overarching discussion of how the Christian tradition has resisted rhetorical renovation and in the process missed opportunities to renovate spiritual belief

Contesting the Past, Reconstructing the Nation Ben Railton, 2007-09-30 In this study of Gilded Age literature and culture Ben Railton proposes that in the years after Reconstruction America's identity was often connected through distinct and competing conceptions of the nation's history Concerned with key social questions such as race Native Americans women and the South Contesting the Past Reconstructing the Nation provided close readings of a number of texts for the ways they highlight these issues This book examines established classics newer additions to the canon largely forgotten best sellers recovery gems and autobiographical works by Douglass and Truth poems by Harper and Piatt and short stories by Woolson and Cooke These readings contribute to ongoing conversations over historical literature's definition and value and a greater understanding of not only American society in the Gilded Age but also debates on our shared but contested history that remain very much alive in the present From publisher's description Library Daylight Rory Litwin, 2006 Library Daylight is an eclectic collection of 36 articles about libraries and librarianship published between 1874 and 1922 These items most of which will be new even to those most well versed in American library history cover topics that are hotly discussed today library education women's issues library technology the image of librarians copyright the tension between libraries as educational institutions and libraries as popular centers the nature of library service the public sphere library PR librarians and political activism and visions of the future The sources of these articles include early ALA conference proceedings early issues of Library Journal and other library periodicals daily newspapers and popular magazines Authors range from still well known leaders in the field to anonymous journalists This will be rewarding reading for anyone interested in how our present day issues are connected to the library past Southern California Quarterly, 1989 From Pedestal to Platform Patricia Dawn Robinson, 1993 Print in Motion Carl F. Kaestle, Janice A. Radway, 2009 History of the Book in America Volume 4 Print in Motion The Expansion of Publishing and Reading in the United States 1880-1940 Faithful Labor Laura Docter Thornburg, 2004 Repositioning Feminism & Education Janice Jipson, 1995-08-22 This book presents testimony of feminisms in process The accounts are filled with tensions not least an uneasiness with feminism itself and the question of what exactly it means to be a feminist in education in the contemporary world It is their respect for their own differences and the honesty with which they write that makes this such a rich text From the Foreword by Kathleen Weiler Educators committed to social change face the common dilemma of how to take up the work of transformation without reinscribing systems of domination The struggle with the concept of imposition is central to the emergence of many educators' identities and provides a site for exploring the complex relationship between power knowledge and teacher identity This book chronicles the collaborative efforts of five diverse women educators Native American European Jewish American rural midwestern working class to grapple with the tensions of taking up a political position while honoring the cultural social and historical context of others Their dialogue across feminist critical and postmodern theories and practices explores the process of fusing theory with political work in the world What emerges is the continual repositioning and disruption of taken for granted meanings as central to enhancing emancipatory education Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1997 American Doctoral Dissertations ,1985 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles J. Murray,1910 A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Henry Bradley, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbut Onions,1914 Choice ,2005 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,2000 Current Index to Journals in Education ,1981
