Pacifism's Appeal Jorg

Kustermans, Tom Sauer, Dominiek Lootens, Barbara Segaert, 2019-03-13 This volume examines the possibility or need of a revitalization of pacifism as a world political practice It takes as its point of departure the observation that although just war thinking has long been dominant in Western debates about war and peace recent events have served to temper enthusiasm about the doctrine Pacifism has been much less prominent a stance in recent decades but there is the impression that it may be staging a return Just war thinking has to a large extent failed Outright bellicism remains as undesirable as ever Pacifism presents itself again as a possible alternative Once upon a time the peace movement was popular and pacifism with it Pacifism appealed to people It stirred hearts and minds It inspired political action and institutional designs This volume examines whether pacifism can claim its ground again and how it should be redefined in light of today s world political circumstances
