Suicidal Tendencies Stories The Series In Contemporary Fiction:

Contemporary Chinese Fiction by Su Tong and Yu Hua Hua Li, 2011-02-18 The book explores the coming of age fiction of two of the most critically acclaimed and frequently translated contemporary Chinese authors Yu Hua and Su Tong it is the first in depth book length treatise in English about the contemporary Chinese Bildungsroman Although various individual contemporary Chinese novelists and individual works of Chinese fiction have previously been discussed under the rubric of the Bildungsroman none of these efforts has approached the level of comprehensive and comparative analysis that this book brings to the genre and its social contexts in contemporary China This book will pique the interests not only of scholars and students of Chinese and comparative literature but also of historians and social scientists with an interest in the region Short Story Index, 2004 Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction Gero Bauer, 2024-01-11 Explores the emphasis that contemporary novels films and television series place on the present arguing that hope emerges from the potentiality of the here and now rather than the future and as intimately entangled with negotiations of structures of belonging Taking its cue from an understanding of hope as connoting an organizing temporality one which is often presumed to be projecting into a future Hope and Kinship in Contemporary Fiction challenges this understanding arguing that hope emerges in practices of relationality in the present disentangling hope from a necessary correlation with futurity Through close readings of contemporary works including The Road The Walking Dead Cloud Atlas Sense8 The People in the Trees and A Little Life Gero Bauer investigates how these texts explore structures of kinship as creative and affective practices of belonging and care that claim spaces beyond the heterosexual reproductive nuclear family In this context fictional figurations of the child often considered the bearer of the future are of particular interest Through these interventions into definitions of and reflections on fictional manifestations of hope and kinship Bauer's analyses intersect with queer theory new materialism and postcritical approaches to literature and cultural studies moving towards counterintuitively hopeful readings of the present moment Suicidal Tendencies Thomas Alan Broughton, 2003 Whether a brother struggles to understand and accept his sister's radical activities a woman needs to distance herself from her children or a young boy deals with his seductive teacher the characters in T Alan Broughton's SUICIDAL TENDENCIES confront and explore the difficulties that shape their lives Modernity's Metonyms Geraldine Lawless, 2011-05-31 Modernity's Metonyms considers the representation of temporal frameworks in stories by the nineteenth century Spanish authors Leopoldo Alas and Antonio Ros de Olano Adopting a metonymic approach exploring the reiteration of specific associations across a range of disciplines from literature philosophy historiography to natural history Modernity's Metonyms moves beyond the consideration of nineteenth century Spanish literary modernity in terms of the problem of representation Through an exploration of the associations prompted by three themes the railway food and suicide it argues that literary modernity can be considered as the expression of the perception that a linear model of time bringing together the past the present and the future was fragmenting into a proliferation of simultaneous moments It draws French German American and British writers into discussion of stories by the canonical author Alas and Ros de Olano an author who is receiving increasing attention from scholars of nineteenth century Spanish literature Recent scholarship in the field of nineteenth century Spanish literature and culture has challenged the thesis of retraso the thesis that Spain lagged far behind its European neighbors Building on this scholarship this monograph incorporates shorter works of experimental prose fiction into discussions of nineteenth century literary modernity in Spain It further expands the field by combining analysis of the writing of the canonical author Leopoldo Alas with stories by Antonio Ros de Olano whose work has been receiving increasing attention from scholars in the field Rather than thinking of these works in terms of the ways they conform to established models provided by either contemporaneous French and British works or by fin de siglo and early twentieth century Spanish literature Modernity s Metonyms works inductively Suicide in Modern Literature Josefa Ros Velasco,2022-01-01 This book analyzes the social and contextual causes of suicide the existential and philosophical reasons for committing suicide and the prevention strategies that modern fictional literature places at our disposal They go through the review of Modern fictional literature in the American and European geographical framework following the rationales that modern literature based on fiction can serve the purpose of understanding better the phenomenon of suicide its most inaccessible impulses and that has the potential to prevent suicide From the turn of the 20th century to the present debates over the meaning of suicide became a privileged site for efforts to discover the reasons why people commit suicide and how to prevent this behavior Since the French sociologist and philosopher mile Durkheim published his study Suicide A Study in Sociology in 1897 a reframing of suicide took place giving rise to a flourishing group of researchers and authors devoting their efforts to understand better the causes of suicide and to the formation of suicide prevention organizations A century later we still keep on trying to reach such an understanding of suicide the nature and nuances of its modern conceptualization to prevent suicidal behaviors The question of what suicide means in and for modernity is not an overcome one Suicide is an act that touches all of our lives and engages with the incomprehensible and unsayable Since the turn of the millennium a fierce debate about the state s role in assisted suicide has been adopted Beyond the discussion as to whether physicians should assist in the suicide of patients with unbearable and hopeless suffering the scope of the suicidal agency is much broader concerning general people wanting to die
