Sulla Letteratura:

La questione romantica. Rivista interdisciplinare di studi romantici vol. 15-16: Viaggio e paesaggio. Autunno 2003 primavera 2004 ,2007 Rewriting and Rereading the XIX and XX-Century Canons Brian Zuccala, Samuele Grassi, 2022-07-21 The book takes its lead from academic Annamaria Pagliaro's experience straddling Australia and Italy over a thirty year period. As both former colleagues and collaborators of Pagliaro, we editors intend to open a kaleidoscope of perspectives on the international research landscape in the fields of Italian and Anglophone studies starting from Pagliaro's own contribution to the creation of relations between the two cultures in the period that saw her work transnationally as Director of the Monash University Prato Centre 2005-2008 Encyclopedia of the Essay Tracy Chevalier, 2012-10-12 This groundbreaking new source of international scope defines the essay as nonfictional prose texts of between one and 50 pages in length. The more than 500 entries by 275 contributors include entries on nationalities, various categories of essays such as generic such as sermons, aphorisms, individual major works, notable writers and periodicals that created a market for essays and particularly famous or significant essays. The preface details the historical development of the essay and the alphabetically arranged entries usually include biographical sketch, nationality, era, selected writings, list of additional readings and anthologies Trends in Contemporary Italian Narrative 1980-2007 Gillian Ania, Ann Hallamore Caesar, 2009-05-05 The new Italian narrative that began to be spoken about in the 1980s was not associated with a single writer or movement but with an eclectic and varied production. The eight essays that make up this volume set out to give a flavour of the breadth and range of recent trends and developments. The collection opens with two essays on crime fiction. In the first Luca Somigli examines novels dealing with topical issues or recent history and which reveal a strong indigenous and regional tradition while in the second Nicoletta McGowan discusses the particular case of a noir by Claudia Salvatori. They are followed by essays on two of Italy's best known contemporary writers. Marina Spunta's essay explores the representation of space, place and landscape in the work of Gianni Celati and photographer Luigi Ghirri while Darrell O'Connell analyses the fiction of Vincenzo Consolo and his struggle to find a means of representing an ethical stance within fiction. Two essays then examine the role of the anthology for young writers: Charlotte Ross and Derek Duncan in the context of lesbian and gay writing looking at identity politics and the problematics of categorization; Monica Jansen and Inge Lanslots in that of the Young Cannibals and their often unsettling non-literary language and orientation towards cinema, pop music and slang. The penultimate essay by Jennifer Burns discusses the literature of migrants to Italy focusing on questions of identity, memory, mobility and language while the final contribution by Gillian Ania is a study of apocalypse and dystopia in contemporary writing looking at novels by Vassalli, Capriolo, Avoledo and Pispisa. This volume examines Italian narrative from the 1980s to the present from the original viewpoint of genres, categories, trends rather than author-based analyses. It highlights the innovations of the last twenty years incorporating into the various themes well-known writers like Consolo, Celati and Vassalli.

with relative newcomers like Avoledo and Pispisa The contributors to the volume academics from the UK Ireland Canada Belgium cover a wide range of themes which have come to the fore during this period ranging from detective stories both the giallo and the noir to lesbian and gay writing to immigration literature in Italian to the study of apocalypse and dystopia The themes are contextualized in the socio political and cultural changes taking place in Italy and parallel to this the temporal moments of the narratives are in turn related to their historical realities This is a richly woven account which presents post 80s Italian narrative from a new and stimulating angle in eight lucid and informative essays which will be welcomed by all those interested in contemporary fiction in its cultural context Professor Anna Laura Lepschy Department of Italian University College London

The Unpopular Realism of Vincenzo Padula Joseph Francese, 2021-10-18 The Unpopular Realism of Vincenzo Padula provides a microhistory of life in a Southern Italian province in the decade following Unification and of Vincenzo Padula who wrote single handedly from March 1864 to July 1865 a period when pro Bourbon loyalists were attempting to exploit the discontent of the Region's poor masses by fomenting brigandage and reverse the Unification Il Bruzio a pro Government periodical published in Cosenza The pro government reformist Padula pointed out not only the successes but also the shortcomings and failures of the Savoy regime so as to consolidate their rule He gave particular attention to the problems of daily life through the correspondence of a literary creation Mariuzzo Sbriffiti The difficult integration of the South in Padula's view was often exacerbated by the unwillingness of the piemontesi to learn the social political and economic realities of the South Padula enables us to view from multiple angles both macroscopic issues such as the relationship between the Church and the New Italy and the dire state of the infrastructure and economy and microscopic ones such as the peasantry's misplaced hopes in Garibaldi clerical obscurantism popular beliefs and culture contradictions in the structure of the new liberal regime and the status and role of women in such a society He views his subjects from a unique perspective one is defined by its empathy for and identification with the marginalized persons of Calabria
