100 Ideas for Primary Teachers: Interventions Stephen Lockyer,2018-03-08 No matter what you teach there is a 100 Ideas title for you The 100 Ideas series offers teachers practical easy to implement strategies and activities for the classroom Each author is an expert in their field and is passionate about sharing best practice with their peers Each title includes at least ten additional extra creative Bonus Ideas that won't fail to inspire and engage all learners. It's not unusual to find children in your class who are falling behind their peers either academically or socially but it can be difficult to understand exactly why this is happening and what to do about it. This book provides tried and tested interventions so that you can determine the specific needs of each child and help them overcome whatever issues they might be facing. This book is the perfect dip in and out solution to help teachers plan interventions to support the vast range of difficulties children in their class may be grappling with. Stephen Lockyer includes ideas for number and letter transposition, odd and even skills, patterning, sequencing, reading, handwriting, motor skills, teamwork, behaviour and much more besides. Offering a mixture of one to one interventions and small group work, this is the ultimate resource for planning and undertaking primary school interventions and to help pupils catch up with learning.

Teachers' Professional Development in Global Contexts
 ,2019-05-20 The essence of this book is to shed light on the nature of current educational practices from a variety of theoretical perspectives. Both teachers and their trainers provide a better understanding of teacher training and learning processes. Mutual interrelations and the provision of knowledge between academia and schools are essential for merging discourses and aligning positions whereby turning practice into theory and theory into practice. In today's teaching, it is vital for suitably responding to multiple issues and increasingly diverse contexts. The array of studies from around the world compiled in this volume allow readers to find common ground, discover shared concerns, and define goals. Studying teaching practice and training in different contexts reveals the state of the art, practices, and identifies those issues that enable educators to understand the complexities involved. The chapters examine the development of our knowledge and understanding of teaching practices at the same time as analysing engaging learning environments, the sustainability of learning and teaching practices, and highlighting new practices based on the use of ICTs. The diverse teaching contexts considered in this compilation of international research are organized according to the following topics: Teaching, occupational learning and knowledge, Teacher beliefs and reflective thinking, and Innovative teaching procedures. The contributors are: Laura Sara Agrati, Dyann Barras, Verónica Basilotta, Gómez Pablos, Benignus Bitu, Robyn Brandenburg, Heather Braund, Michael Cavanagh, Chiou hui Chou, Jean Clandinin, Leah L.
