A Translation of Three Plays by Lucette Desvignes Lucette Desvignes, 2002 This volume makes these plays accessible to contemporary scholars dramatists directors and students to be read discussed and performed Eurydice Eurydice is a classical allegory in a modern setting addressing the theme of loss and recovery within contemporary society Strange Encounters is reputed to be the first play in France to use onstage the cinematographic technique of flashback to create a play within a play In Marsyas Desvignes combines tragic discourse with musical interlude to achieve dramatic catharsis representing the struggle of humanity against forces that would diminish individuality creativity and freedom An English Translation of Les Princes Du Jargon Alice Becker-Ho, 2004 This groundbreaking comparative study of dangerous class slangs in use across ten countries from Europe to the Americas brings to light the common influences that have helped to shape them over the last five hundred years Facing French and English translation A critical edition of Girart D'Amiens' L'histoire le Roy Charlemaine Girart, 2003 L'histoire le roy Charlemaine is one of the very last still unpublished chansons de geste in French literature since until recently scholars have neglected the genre of late medieval remaniements and compilations to which it belongs This critical edition of the 23 348 line poem will be greatly appreciated by French and medieval scholars Preface and introduction in English text and notes in French Student Encyclopedia of African Literature Douglas Killam, Alicia L. Kerfoot, 2007-12-30 African literature is a vast subject of growing output and interest Written especially for students this book selectively surveys the topic in a clear and accessible way Included are roughly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on writers genres and major works Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Africa is a land of contrasts and of diverse cultures and traditions It is also a land of conflict and creativity The literature of the continent draws upon a fascinating body of oral traditions and lore and also reflects the political turmoil of the modern world With the increased interest in cultural diversity and the growing centrality of Africa in world politics African literature is figuring more and more prominently in the curriculum This book helps students learn about the African literary achievement Written expressly for students this book is far more accessible than other reference works on the subject Included are nearly 600 alphabetically arranged entries on authors such as Chinua Achebe Athol Fugard Buchi Emecheta Nadine Gordimer and Wole Soyinka major works such as Things Fall Apart and Petals of Blood and individual genres such as the novel drama and poetry Many entries cite works for further reading and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography Jean Giono's Hidden Reality Edward Bruce Ford, 2004 This volume demonstrates that throughout his career Jean Giono believed that true reality was hidden behind appearances Text as Resonance Lucette Finas, 2003 Sammlung Ingrid Åkerlund, 2003 This study describes the ideas and works of women mostly poets who all had links to Marguerite d'Angoulême Anne Malet de Graville was lady in waiting at the court of Claude de France and made adaptations of two old texts The Lyonnese School produced poets Jeanne de Jussie a Catholic nun was driven out of

Switzerland to a convent in Annecy France where she became abbess She wrote a book where in she described the horror of the persecution Marie Dentiere was a former abbess who abandoned her Catholic faith and wrote two books showing her as a strong defender of women Camille de Morel belonged to an illustrious French family and wrote poetry in Latin This study provides biographies and studies of the surviving works of these women writers Tahar Ben Jelloun Ruth Amar,2005 This study is an analysis of elements that build the narrative strategies of Tahar Ben Jelloun s work On formal and thematic levels the narrative sequence and its interwoven strands manifest a story in perpetual becoming in constant dissolution and evolution In fact the story is an infinite quest It is told and repeated in various manners with no possibility to be exhausted This continual quest of the story is nourished by a lack expressed by the needs of the post colonial Maghrebian novel for compensating a world that was but is not any more However this lack conditions the production of the story The text nourishes itself from the lack it produces We could say then that Ben Jelloun s novel is not the production of a story but the emphasized production becoming itself Story it is not the story that is told but the story of its production On the one hand this study redefines Ben Jelloun s narrative strategies on the other hand it focuses on the importance of the perpetual becoming in all the aspects manifested in his work reflecting the difficulties of its hybrid nature the function of the symbolical writing the construction of characters and their contribution to the fragility of the story the revelation of generative forces of a form and its rupture Although other novels are taken into account the focus of this study is on central texts like L ecrivain public Moha le fou Moha le sage Harrouda L enfant de sable La nuit sacree La Reclusion solitaire Les yeux baisses
